

Group 1

1. Abound

verb:

- be present in large quantities
Wildfires abound in the lush green meadows of the valley.

Synonyms:

- proliferate
- thrive
- flourish

2. Amorphous

adjective:

- lacking structure; unclear
His plans for the future were still amorphous, changing every few weeks.

Synonyms:

- shapeless
- indefinite
- vague

• Austere

adjective:

- (of a person) strict and stern in character
With his austere manner, Mr. Thompson rarely cracked a smile.

Synonyms:

- harsh
- dour
- grim

3. Belie

verb:

- give a false impression of; mask
Her sparkling eyes belie the sadness she must feel.

Synonyms:

- conceal
- contradict
- be at odds with

4. Capricious

adjective:

- having varying moods; fickle
The capricious nature of the weather has made planning outdoor events difficult.

Synonyms:

- mercurial
- volatile
- impulsive

5. Cerebral

adjective:

- related to the brain
The surgeon specialized in cerebral procedures.

Synonyms:

- neurological
- cranial
- cortical

adjective:

- intellectual; focused on learning rather than emotion
Sophia had a cerebral approach to solving problems.

Synonyms:

- analytical
- rational
- academic

6. Congenial

adjective:

- (of a person) likable and friendly, often due to shared interests
Congenial as she was, Nancy was always invited to parties.

Synonyms:

- convivial
- genial
- kindred

adjective:

- (of a thing) enjoyable because it aligns with one's tendencies

She found the small town a more congenial way of life.

Synonyms:

- pleasant
- agreeable
- appealing

7. Conspicuous

adjective:

- easily noticed; obvious
- On Insta, it's important that your vacation be as conspicuous as possible.*

Synonyms:

- manifest
- patent
- striking

8. Cursory

adjective:

- lacking effort; without care
- He gave a cursory glance at the document before signing it.*

Synonyms:

- desultory
- perfunctory
- token

9. Daunting

adjective:

- scary or frightening
 - (of a task) seeming impossible
- Memorizing 960 GRE words is daunting but necessary.*

Synonyms:

- formidable
- intimidating
- unnerving

10. Deify

verb:

- look up to someone or something as a god

In some ancient cultures, the sun was deified and worshiped.

Synonyms:

- venerate
- lionize
- exalt

11. Didactic

adjective:

- meant for teaching; educational, sometimes in a condescending manner

The play was not only entertaining but also didactic, offering lessons on morality.

Synonyms:

- instructive
- doctrinal
- pedagogic

12. Disseminate

verb:

- distribute or circulate broadly
- The invention of the printing press allowed information to disseminate rapidly.*

Synonyms:

- disperse
- promulgate
- propagate

13. Feasible

adjective:

- likely to be achieved; practical
- Hopefully carbon capture technology will be feasible in the future.*

Synonyms:

- attainable
- realizable
- expedient

14. Flout

verb:

- break a rule without guilt
- Students flouted the classroom's "no chewing gum" rule.*

Synonyms:

- defy
- scorn
- contravene

15. Homogeneous

adjective:

- composed of similar parts; alike
The population in the small town was quite homogeneous, with little diversity.

Synonyms:

- uniform
- analogous
- undistinguishable

16. Humdrum

adjective:

- boring; unlikely to excite
More often than not, Netflix movies are humdrum, cookie-cutter affairs.

Synonyms:

- mundane
- banal
- prosaic

17. Insipid

adjective:

- without flavor; lacking energy
The professor was tiring of the students' insipid remarks.

Synonyms:

- bland
- dull
- vapid

18. Loquacious

adjective:

- likely to talk a lot; wordy
Loquacious to a fault, Bill never took the hint to, on occasion, shut up.

Synonyms:

- garrulous
- voluble
- verbose

19. Misanthropic

adjective:

- having a distaste for humans and society
No one has seen that misanthropic hermit in years.

Synonyms:

- reclusive
- unsociable
- inhospitable

20. Misnomer

noun:

- a misleading or inaccurate name
The authoritarian regime likes to call itself a "democracy," an obvious misnomer.

Synonyms:

- We can't find any

21. Negligent

adjective:

- lacking care or attention
The captain's negligent behavior led to the death of thousands.

Synonyms:

- remiss
- neglectful
- lax

22. Obsequious

adjective:

- excessively submissive to authority
Dictators tend to surround themselves with obsequious apologists.

Synonyms:

- servile
- sycophantic
- unctuous

23. Obsequious

adjective:

- excessively submissive to authority
Dictators tend to surround themselves with obsequious apologists.

Synonyms:

- servile
- sycophantic
- unctuous

24. Placate

verb:

- decrease someone's anger or other negative emotion
He tried to placate the angry customer by offering a full refund.

Synonyms:

- pacify
- mollify
- conciliate

25. Proclivity

noun:

- a fondness or liking for something
Her proclivity for expensive pastries is wreaking havoc on her finances.

Synonyms:

- inclination
- propensity
- tendency

26. Puerile

adjective:

- immature and childish
The mature audience was unimpressed by the comedian's puerile humor.

Synonyms:

- infantile
- juvenile
- inane

27. Quixotic

adjective:

- excessively visionary; unfeasible
His quixotic dream of creating a world without conflict seemed impossible.

Synonyms:

- idealistic
- utopian
- nonviable

28. Spendthrift

noun:

- someone who spends money recklessly
He was a spendthrift, constantly buying unnecessary items and racking up debt.

Synonyms:

- profligate
- prodigal
- squanderer

29. Taciturn

adjective:

- of few words; speaking little
He's generally taciturn, so when he speaks you know it's important.

Synonyms:

- unforthcoming
- reserved
- retiring

30. Wary

adjective:

- exercising caution; careful
We can't always be wary; sometimes we have to take risks.

Synonyms:

- chary
- vigilant
- heedful

Group 2

31. Adulterate

verb:

- damage the quality of; corrupt
Chemical runoff regularly adulterates our water supply.

Synonyms:

- defile
- taint
- debase

32. Advocate

verb:

- support; be in favor of
The board advocated a more conservative marketing strategy.

Synonyms:

- champion
- back
- endorse

noun:

- someone who supports a cause, organization, or person
John is an advocate for many progressive causes.

Synonyms:

- proponent
- champion
- crusader

33. Aggrandize

verb:

- enhance one's power or standing
Roman leading men never passed on an opportunity to aggrandize themselves.

Synonyms:

- embellish
- augment
- magnify

34. Alacrity

noun:

- eagerness to do something
The children completed their chores with surprising alacrity.

Synonyms:

- zeal
- haste
- ardor

35. Ambivalent

adjective:

- having conflicting emotions; unsure
It's normal to feel ambivalent when moving to a new place.

Synonyms:

- equivocal
- irresolute
- vacillating

36. Ameliorate

verb:

- improve a bad feeling or bad situation
Strong service and timely support can ameliorate customer anger.

Synonyms:

- ease
- mitigate
- relieve

37. Amenable

adjective:

- (of a person) receptive to change; open
The students were amenable to less homework.

Synonyms:

- acquiescent
- compliant
- tractable

adjective:

- (of a thing) responsive to
The software is amenable to customization, and we can tailor it to our needs.

Synonyms:

- susceptible
- receptive
- reactive

38. Anachronistic

adjective:

- of the wrong time or era
Dreams of colonial conquest are anachronistic in today's modern world.

Synonyms:

- archaic
- outmoded
- antiquated

39. Audacious

adjective:

- bold; unafraid of risks
Elon Musk incessantly pursues his audacious plan for a city on Mars.

Synonyms:

- daring
- intrepid
- unflinching

adjective:

- rude; exhibiting disrespect
His audacious remark during the meeting caught everyone off guard and was seen by many as downright disrespectful.

Synonyms:

- impudent
- presumptuous
- impertinent

40. Avaricious

adjective:

- greedy; always wanting more
Free market economies not only tolerate but reward avaricious behavior.

Synonyms:

- acquisitive
- rapacious
- grasping

41. Banal

adjective:

- unoriginal and dull; lacking creativity

The reviewer grew weary of banal, by-the-book action movies.

Synonyms:

- trite
- platitudinous
- vapid

42. Benign

adjective:

- harmless; having little effect

Despite causing some initial discomfort, the process is benign.

Synonyms:

- innocuous
- benignant
- gentle

adjective:

- (of a person's character) kindhearted; nice

Despite his imposing stature, he had a benign smile.

Synonyms:

- amiable
- congenial
- cordial

43. Brazen

adjective:

- shameless and excessively forward
- John's brazen interruptions of his boss' speech were not received well.*

Synonyms:

- presumptuous
- brash
- unabashed

44. Calumny

noun:

- slander and defamation

The tabloid had an axe to grind and thus spread calumny daily.

Synonyms:

- libel
- obloquy
- denigration

45. Candid

adjective:

- honest; without deception
- Honesty is important, but don't be too candid in job interviews.*

Synonyms:

- blunt
- forthright
- frank

46. Castigate

verb:

- scold someone harshly
- The entire country castigated the governor for his ill-timed statement.*

Synonyms:

- rebuke
- lambast
- berate

47. Caustic

adjective:

- (of speech) hostile and bitter
- Reality TV thrives on conflict and caustic discourse between characters.*

Synonyms:

- derisive
- scathing
- mordant

adjective:

- (of a chemical) corrosive; acidic
- Care should be taken when handling the caustic substance.*

Synonyms:

- alkaline
- mordant
- acrid

48. Construe

verb:

- understand something subjectively
- It was difficult to construe the retreat as anything but a massive defeat.*

Synonyms:

- read
- parse
- decode

49. Contrite

adjective:

- feeling regretful or guilty
- Genuinely contrite, the man accepted his sentence without protest.*

Synonyms:

- repentant
- rueful
- chastened

50. Convoluted

adjective:

- difficult to understand or follow
- Rome's roads are a convoluted mess.*

Synonyms:

- serpentine
- tortuous
- Byzantine

51. Covet

verb:

- strongly desire; yearn for
- To improve our mental health, let's try to not covet the possessions of others.*

Synonyms:

- long for
- hanker for
- ache for

52. Craven

adjective:

- lacking bravery; weak-kneed
- The army surrendered but not because the soldiers were craven.*

Synonyms:

- quaking
- timid
- lily-livered

53. Decorum

noun:

- politeness and proper behavior
- The mother encouraged her son to have decorum.*

Synonyms:

- propriety
- decency
- deportment

54. Deft

adjective:

- highly proficient; skilled
- Jane's deft fingers navigate the 88 piano keys effortlessly.*

Synonyms:

- adroit
- artful
- dexterous

55. Demur

verb:

- hesitate or object; express doubt
- Most employees demurred when asked to undergo daily Covid testing.*

Synonyms:

- take issue with
- cavil
- dissent

noun:

- hesitation
- The judge asked if there were any objections, and there was a brief demur from the defense attorney before proceeding.*

Synonyms:

- protestation
- dispute
- disinclination

56. Derivative

adjective:

- based on someone else's work (often used in a negative sense)
- The film is derivative, but proudly so.*

Synonyms:

- trite
- imitative
- hackneyed

57. Desiccate

verb:

- dry out; remove all moisture
- The land was thoroughly desiccated.*

Synonyms:

- dehydrate
- drain
- parch

58. Diatribesnoun:

- an angry rant; verbal abuse
- Her diatribe on the ills of society was too hostile to persuade anyone.*

Synonyms:

- tirade
- harangue
- denunciation

59. Incredulousadjective:

- doubtful and disbelieving
- People are understandably incredulous at the prospect of intergalactic travel.*

Synonyms:

- dubious
- unconvinced
- suspicious

60. Ingenuousadjective:

- naive and lacking experience
- We long for the ingenuous days of our youth.*

Synonyms:

- unguarded
- green
- unworldly

Group 361. Abate*verb:

- decrease in intensity; lessen
- He relied on TV to abate his loneliness.*

Synonyms:

- subside
- dwindle
- ebb

62. Abjureverb:

- strongly reject (an idea); forgo
- Under enough pressure, many will abjure their principles.*

Synonyms:

- renounce
- relinquish
- forgo

63. Anomalousadjective:

- differing from what is normal; atypical
- Because the results are anomalous, further study is needed.*

Synonyms:

- atypical
- aberrant
- exceptional

64. Antipathynoun:

- profound hostility or hatred
- The two generals harbored significant antipathy toward each other.*

Synonyms:

- animosity
- aversion
- enmity

65. Arcaneadjective:

- comprehended by very few people; secret
- The profession keeps things arcane to discourage newcomers.*

Synonyms:

- mysterious
- esoteric
- enigmatic

66. Arduousadjective:

- very challenging; needing great effort
- Military bootcamp is almost always an arduous experience.*

Synonyms:

- onerous
- laborious
- taxing

67. Artlessadjective:

- naive; inexperienced
- His artless comments about politics revealed how naive he was.*

Synonyms:

- ingenuous
- guileless

- callow

adjective:

- plain and simple

The room had an artless quality, furnished only with a simple table.

Synonyms:

- unadorned
- austere
- unembellished

adjective:

- lacking skill

Her artless attempt at painting made it clear she had never held a brush before.

Synonyms:

- crude
- clumsy
- amateurish

68. Ascetic

adjective:

- (of a lifestyle) very strict and lacking luxury
- Despite her vast wealth, she has adopted ascetic tendencies.

Synonyms:

- austere
- self-denying
- abstemious

noun:

- someone who adopts an ascetic lifestyle

The ascetic lived in a small cell, devoid of luxuries.

Synonyms:

- hermit
- recluse
- celibate

69. Assuage

verb:

- decrease a negative feeling

The prime minister's speech assuaged the fears of the population.

Synonyms:

- mitigate
- allay
- palliate

verb:

- fulfill a certain desire

Only a buffet could assuage his appetite.

Synonyms:

- satisfy
- gratify
- satiate

70. Betray

verb:

- unknowingly disclose or reveal

Her excessive blinking betrayed her nervousness.

Synonyms:

- divulge
- expose
- give away

71. Bucolic

adjective:

- associated with tranquil rural life

Hoping to escape the city, the couple opted for a bucolic Airbnb.

Synonyms:

- rustic
- pastoral
- idyllic

72. Burgeon

verb:

- quickly increase or grow; skyrocket

Because of technological advancements, crop yields have burgeoned.

Synonyms:

- swell
- proliferate
- mushroom

73. Cacophonous

adjective:

- extremely noisy; grating

The parents hated the drumkit because of its cacophonous racket.

Synonyms:

- deafening
- raucous
- discordant

74. Canonize

verb:

- treat like a god; deeply venerate

The later Roman empire began canonizing its leaders.

Synonyms:

- beatify
- sanctify
- exalt

75. Censure

verb:

- strongly criticize or disapprove

The senator was publicly censured for her vile remarks.

Synonyms:

- condemn
- chastise
- castigate

76. Chicanery

noun:

- using deception to attain a certain goal

His masterful chicanery allowed the realization of his political goals.

Synonyms:

- duplicity
- subterfuge
- skulduggery

77. Coalesce

verb:

- bring elements together; unite

In times of conflict, citizens must coalesce and rally around a common cause.

Synonyms:

- merge
- amalgamate
- converge

78. Cogent

adjective:

- persuasive and clear; compelling

Known for his cogent essays, the author has considerable influence.

Synonyms:

- sound
- reasoned
- lucid

79. Compelling

adjective:

- persuasive and clear

The argument was not compelling due to its logical fallacies.

Synonyms:

- cogent
- sound
- rational

adjective:

- attracting interest; fascinating

The author's compelling storytelling had readers hooked from the first chapter.

Synonyms:

- enthralling
- captivating
- riveting

80. Contend

verb:

- argue a certain point of view; assert

The researchers contend that society will collapse by 2050.

Synonyms:

- assert
- maintain
- affirm

verb:

- compete

Several teams will contend for the championship.

Synonyms:

- vie for
- rival
- face off

verb:

- struggle or attempt to overcome something

She contended with chronic illness her entire life.

Synonyms:

- wrestle
- battle
- grapple

81. Copious

adjective:

- existing in great supply; abundant
- The once copious supply of used cars dried up quickly during the pandemic.*

Synonyms:

- ample
- myriad
- multitudinous

82. Cosmopolitan

adjective:

- (of a city) highly diverse

New York City is arguably the most cosmopolitan metropolis in the world.

Synonyms:

- international
- universal
- global

adjective:

- (of a person) sophisticated and urbane

His cosmopolitan demeanor made him the perfect diplomat.

Synonyms:

- worldly
- elegant
- refined

83. Deference

noun:

- high regard and respect; esteem
- In certain cultures, it's important to treat the elderly with marked deference.*

Synonyms:

- courtesy
- veneration
- civility

84. Desultory

adjective:

- unplanned; without enthusiasm
- The teacher's desultory instruction did little to inspire the students.*

Synonyms:

- halfhearted
- lukewarm
- perfunctory

85. Diffident

adjective:

- reserved or shy; without confidence

University forced John to come out of his diffident shell.

Synonyms:

- bashful
- unassuming
- meek

86. Dilatory

adjective:

- slow and unhurried; meant to stall
- The filibuster is a dilatory measure designed to impede Congressional operations.*

Synonyms:

- sluggish
- indolent
- deferring

87. Equivocate

verb:

- speak evasively; avoid taking a stance

Seasoned sports stars recognize it's best to equivocate when asked pointed questions.

Synonyms:

- prevaricate
- cavil
- waver

88. Polarize

verb:

- separate into two opposing groups
- The inflammatory rhetoric is designed to polarize the populace.*

Synonyms:

- divide
- factionalize
- dichotomize

89. Prodigal

adjective:

- carelessly wasteful; extravagant

Prodigal resource extraction does not benefit an economy long-term.

Synonyms:

- improvident
- imprudent
- profligate

noun:

- a person who is excessively wasteful

After years of reckless spending and estrangement, the prodigal returned home.

Synonyms:

- spendthrift
- wastrel
- profligate

90. Verbose

adjective:

- excessively talkative; wordy

The professor's verbose lectures were surprisingly entertaining.

Synonyms:

- loquacious
- garrulous
- voluble

Group 4

91. Abstain

verb:

- avoid taking part in something

He has abstained from alcohol for over three years.

Synonyms:

- refrain
- eschew
- shun

92. Approbation

noun:

- appreciation toward someone

Roman leaders thrived on approbation from the masses.

Synonyms:

- recognition
- commendation
- laudation

93. Cherish

verb:

- greatly love or protect something

We must cherish the memories of youth.

Synonyms:

- revere
- adore
- dote on

94. Corroborate

verb:

- lend support to; bolster

We've yet to find evidence that corroborates our hypothesis.

Synonyms:

- validate
- substantiate
- reinforce

95. Disparate

adjective:

- different or contrasting

The politicians' disparate viewpoints could not be reconciled.

Synonyms:

- varying
- divergent
- heterogeneous

96. Emulate

verb:

- imitate someone or something

To improve in a specific field, simply emulate the actions of the experts.

Synonyms:

- mimic
- parallel
- mirror

97. Enervate

verb:

- sap the energy out of someone; fatigue

The coach took pride in enervating the players.

Synonyms:

- exhaust
- weary
- enfeeble

98. Ephemeral

adjective:

- extremely shortlasting

It was an ephemeral thought that quickly melted away.

Synonyms:

- transient
- fleeting
- momentary

99. Fervid

adjective:

- excessively energetic or eager

The leader's fervid pleas did not go unheard.

Synonyms:

- ardent
- fervent
- zealous

100. Garrulous

adjective:

- tending to talk too much; wordy

Because she's garrulous, this meeting will take forever.

Synonyms:

- voluble
- long-winded
- verbose

101. Incendiary

adjective:

- provocative; causing conflict

His incendiary words did little to appease their anger.

Synonyms:

- inflammatory
- subversive
- agitational

102. Inimical

adjective:

- damaging; hostile in manner or tone

The entire affair has been inimical to our interests.

Synonyms:

- detrimental
- pernicious
- antagonistic

103. Intimate

verb:

- subtly suggest or imply

The professor intimated there would be a test next week.

Synonyms:

- insinuate
- hint
- allude to

104. Invigorate

verb:

- provide energy or vitality to

Nothing invigorates the body like a good night's rest.

Synonyms:

- revitalize
- vivify
- rejuvenate

105. Mitigate

verb:

- diminish negative feelings or situation

You can take some medicine to mitigate the pain.

Synonyms:

- alleviate
- attenuate
- allay

106. Obsolete

adjective:

- no longer useful; outmoded

Fax machines are mostly obsolete now.

Synonyms:

- antiquated
- archaic
- anachronistic

107. Opaque

adjective:

- unclear; hard to comprehend

The scientist's opaque explanation left the audience more confused than enlightened.

Synonyms:

- puzzling
- baffling
- inexplicable

adjective:

- not able to be seen through

The visual evidence is not reliable given the windows were so opaque.

Synonyms:

- blurred
- muddy
- hazy

108. Paradigmatic

adjective:

- representing the standard example

Coconuts, palm trees, and beaches are paradigmatic tropical things.

Synonyms:

- quintessential
- archetypal
- prototypical

109. Pedantic

adjective:

- overly concerned with (minor) details

The pedantic instruction annoys and frustrates the students.

Synonyms:

- nitpicky
- fastidious
- fussy

110. Placid

adjective:

- calm; free from activity or irritation

Most of us seek placid settings on our vacations.

Synonyms:

- tranquil
- pacific
- still

111. Polemical

adjective:

- giving a strong, controversial opinion

His work is usually polemical, but this latest is surprisingly neutral.

Synonyms:

- virulent
- corrosive
- scathing

112. Precipitate

verb:

- cause to happen

Religious tension precipitated the conflict.

Synonyms:

- trigger
- provoke
- occasion

adjective:

- done quickly or suddenly

Her precipitate decision to quit her job left her unemployed and full of regret.

Synonyms:

- hasty
- rash
- impetuous

113. Profundity

noun:

- great wisdom or intelligence

James claims to possess profundity, but his advice often comes from Google.

Synonyms:

- sagacity
- acuity
- percipience

114. Prophetic

adjective:

- able to correctly predict the future

If you collect enough predictions, one will inevitably seem prophetic.

Synonyms:

- prescient
- prognostic
- divinatory

115. Prudent

adjective:

- wise in decision-making

Not saving for retirement is simply not prudent.

Synonyms:

- judicious
- sagacious
- shrewd

116. Punctilious

adjective:

- highly concerned with details or manners

The chef is very punctilious in selecting ingredients.

Synonyms:

- meticulous
- scrupulous
- painstaking

117. Recondite

adjective:

- obscure and difficult to understand

The book is far too recondite to be enjoyed by most.

Synonyms:

- arcane
- obscure
- esoteric

118. Scrupulous

adjective:

- careful with details

He was scrupulous in his research, double-checking every source.

Synonyms:

- meticulous
- diligent
- thorough

adjective:

- possessing moral integrity

She was scrupulous in her business dealings, always prioritizing honesty.

Synonyms:

- ethical
- virtuous
- principled

119. Tranquil

adjective:

- peaceful; free from activity

A trip to the spa is normally a tranquil experience.

Synonyms:

- reposeful
- serene
- placid

120. Vacillate

verb:

- go back and forth with one's view

An expert politician, he vacillated when asked an uncomfortable question.

Synonyms:

- dither
- waver
- oscillate

Group 5

121. Aloof

adjective:

- not warm or friendly; impersonal

She sat in the corner, aloof from the rest of us.

Synonyms:

- standoffish
- detached
- withdrawn

122. Clangor

noun:

- a disturbingly loud noise

The clangor of the construction site interrupted our conversation.

Synonyms:

- racket
- commotion
- clatter

123. Conventional

adjective:

- adhering to established practices or accepted standards

He has very conventional views about education.

Synonyms:

- prosaic
- pedestrian
- formulaic

124. Debunk

verb:

- prove a belief or idea false

The scientist debunked the myth that vaccines cause autism.

Synonyms:

- discredit
- controvert
- confute

125. Diminutive

adjective:

- exceptionally small in size or stature

Her diminutive stature did not affect her powerful voice.

Synonyms:

- petite
- minute
- minuscule

126. Discernible

adjective:

- able to be recognized or understood

There was no discernible change in his attitude.

Synonyms:

- manifest
- evident
- perceptible

127. Enigmatic

adjective:

- hard to understand; mysterious

Her silence on the issue was enigmatic.

Synonyms:

- inexplicable
- baffling
- inscrutable

128. Estrange

adjective:

- emotionally distanced from someone

He became estranged from his family after moving overseas.

Synonyms:

- alienated
- detached
- severed

129. Extravagant

adjective:

- excessive, especially in terms of cost

His extravagant lifestyle was unsustainable in the long term.

Synonyms:

- profligate
- thriftless
- prodigal

130. Fanciful

adjective:

- highly imaginative; unrealistic

His fanciful ideas about living on Mars were amusing.

Synonyms:

- impractical
- flighty
- quixotic

131. Frivolous

adjective:

- lacking in seriousness or importance; silly

She dismissed his comment as frivolous.

Synonyms:

- flippant
- facetious
- fatuous

adjective:

- (of a person) not taking things seriously

Believing that, in the end, nothing really matters, he's adopted a frivolous attitude.

Synonyms:

- lighthearted
- whimsical
- zany

132. Heterogeneous

adjective:

- composed of varying, diverse elements

The population of the city is quite heterogeneous.

Synonyms:

- miscellaneous
- divergent
- motley

133. Imperious

adjective:

- having an arrogant or domineering manner

His imperious demeanor was off-putting to his colleagues.

Synonyms:

- peremptory
- overbearing
- officious

134. Impertinent

adjective:

- disrespectful or inappropriate

His impertinent behavior at the meeting shocked everyone.

Synonyms:

- insolent
- brazen
- impudent

adjective:

- irrelevant or unrelated to something

Employees kept bringing up impertinent issues at the meeting.

Synonyms:

- inapposite
- immaterial
- inapplicable

135. Invasive

adjective:

- infringing on other's privacy

The invasive surveillance techniques used by the government were criticized.

Synonyms:

- meddlesome
- obtrusive
- intrusive

adjective:

- spreading rapidly and causing harm

The kudzu vine is an invasive species in the southern United States.

Synonyms:

- pervasive
- infiltrative
- penetrative

136. Irresolute

adjective:

- uncertain or lacking determination

She was irresolute about her decision to move abroad.

Synonyms:

- vacillating
- dithering
- faltering

137. Laudable

adjective:

- worthy of admiration or praise

His efforts to protect the environment were laudable.

Synonyms:

- meritorious
- commendable
- estimable

138. Lax

adjective:

- not diligent or careful; casual

The manager's lax attitude towards safety was a cause for concern.

Synonyms:

- slipshod
- slack
- negligent

139. Marginalize

verb:

- treat someone or something as insignificant

They felt marginalized by society because of their religious beliefs.

Synonyms:

- sideline
- disregard
- ostracize

140. Panache

noun:

- a stylish and confident manner

The actor performed the role with panache.

Synonyms:

- flamboyance
- self-assurance
- flair

141. Plodding

adjective:

- moving slowly or laboriously

The plodding pace of the meeting made him feel sleepy.

Synonyms:

- lumbering
- slogging
- ambling

142. Prosaicadjective:

- straightforward; unoriginal; unimaginative

His speech was prosaic, devoid of any rhetorical flourish.

Synonyms:

- mundane
- humdrum
- pedestrian

143. Remedialadjective:

- serving to correct or cure something

She was placed in a remedial reading class to improve her skills.

Synonyms:

- restorative
- palliative
- rectifying

144. Restiveadjective:

- demonstrating difficulty in staying still

The audience grew restive as the presentation continued.

Synonyms:

- restless
- agitated
- skittish

145. Sporadicadjective:

- happening occasionally and irregularly

There have been sporadic outbreaks of the disease.

Synonyms:

- occasional
- intermittent
- scattered

146. Stigmatizeverb:

- label or mark as disgraceful

The campaign aims to stigmatize smoking in public areas.

Synonyms:

- condemn
- disparage
- pillory

147. Undermineverb:

- weaken or sabotage, often subtly

The constant criticism served to undermine her confidence.

Synonyms:

- subvert
- compromise
- impair

148. Utterlyadverb:

- completely and without exception

He was utterly convinced of his own success.

Synonyms:

- wholly
- absolutely
- outright

149. Wearyadjective:

- feeling tired or exhausted

After the long journey, they were weary and ready to rest.

Synonyms:

- fatigued
- sapped
- enervated

150. Zealousadjective:

- intensely passionate

She was a zealous advocate for human rights.

Synonyms:

- fervent
- ardent
- fervid

Group 6

151. Admonish

verb:

- scold someone seriously

The teacher had to admonish the student for repeatedly interrupting the class.

Synonyms:

- reprimand
- upbraid
- chastise

verb:

- give someone urgent advice

The teacher admonished her class to submit their college applications on time.

Synonyms:

- advise
- urge
- counsel

152. Aesthetic

adjective:

- pertaining to beauty or the appreciation thereof

She has an aesthetic sense of fashion that always impresses her friends.

Synonyms:

- ornamental
- decorative
- stylish

153. Affectation

noun:

- a pretense or show meant to impress others

His French accent was an affectation as he had never been to France.

Synonyms:

- artificiality
- posturing
- airs

154. Alleviate

verb:

- lessen the intensity or severity of something negative

Taking a warm bath can alleviate the symptoms of a cold.

Synonyms:

- relieve
- allay
- temper

155. Analogous

adjective:

- comparable or similar to

The relationship between a painter and canvas is analogous to a writer and the blank page.

Synonyms:

- parallel
- kindred
- equivalent

156. Bolster

verb:

- lend support or boost

She brought her best friend along to bolster her confidence.

Synonyms:

- reinforce
- fortify
- prop up

157. Chauvinistic

adjective:

- excessively patriotic or biased in favor of a group or cause

His chauvinistic pride in his country blinded him to its flaws.

Synonyms:

- nationalistic
- jingoistic
- prejudiced

158. Connoisseur

noun:

- a discerning expert in matters of taste

As a connoisseur of fine wines, he was asked to select the vintages for the royal dinner.

Synonyms:

- aficionado
- savant
- enthusiast

159. Dissemble

verb:

- hide or misrepresent one's true feelings or beliefs

Despite his anger, he had to dissemble in order to maintain his composure.

Synonyms:

- feign
- masquerade
- bluff

160. Dogged

adjective:

- demonstrating tenacity and an unwillingness to give up

Despite the challenges, she pursued her goal with dogged determination.

Synonyms:

- resolved
- pertinacious
- unflagging

161. Dupe

verb:

- trick or fool someone

He was duped into signing the contract without reading the fine print.

Synonyms:

- hoodwink
- deceive
- swindle

162. Empirical

adjective:

- based on observation or experience rather than conjecture

Her empirical research provided data that supported her hypothesis.

Synonyms:

- factual
- verifiable
- experimental

163. Engender

verb:

- produce or stimulate the development of something

The politician's controversial statement engendered a wave of criticism.

Synonyms:

- give rise to
- induce
- provoke

164. Entitled

adjective:

- assuming oneself to be deserving of special rights or privileges

His entitled attitude put off his colleagues.

Synonyms:

- spoiled
- arrogant
- pompous

165. Pertinacious

adjective:

- stubbornly holding onto a belief or course of action

Her pertinacious efforts to get the law changed eventually paid off.

Synonyms:

- assiduous
- resolute
- dogged

166. Presumptuous

adjective:

- overstepping boundaries, often in an overconfident way

It would be presumptuous of me to comment on the matter without knowing all the facts.

Synonyms:

- brazen
- arrogant
- audacious

167. Probity

noun:

- the characteristic of having strong ethical standards

His reputation for probity in all aspects of his life is well known.

Synonyms:

- integrity
- rectitude
- virtue

168. Proliferate

verb:

- rapidly increase or multiply in number

Once introduced to the lake, the non-native species began to proliferate.

Synonyms:

- snowball
- skyrocket
- burgeon

169. Specious

adjective:

- seemingly reasonable but actually wrong

Her argument, though specious, convinced many people due to her charisma.

Synonyms:

- misleading
- deceptive
- fallacious

170. Spurious

adjective:

- not genuine; bogus

The art dealer could tell immediately that the painting was spurious.

Synonyms:

- specious
- sham
- contrived

171. Subjective

adjective:

- pertaining to personal feelings rather than objective reality

Art is highly subjective, with beauty truly lying in the eyes of the beholder.

Synonyms:

- instinctive
- intuitive
- biased

172. Subvert

verb:

- undermine or weaken, typically an authority of some sort

The rebel's plan was to subvert the government by spreading propaganda.

Synonyms:

- destabilize
- sabotage
- undercut

173. Timorous

adjective:

- displaying nervousness; lacking confidence

The timorous rabbit hid in its burrow at the sound of a human voice.

Synonyms:

- quaking
- self-effacing
- unassuming

174. Tortuous

adjective:

- marked by numerous twists or turns

The mountain road was tortuous and required careful driving.

Synonyms:

- winding
- undulating
- sinuous

adjective:

- overly complicated and long

The tortuous legal process left everyone exhausted and confused.

Synonyms:

- convoluted
- involved
- circuitous

175. Tractable

adjective:

- easily managed or controlled

The tractable dog quickly learned to fetch the newspaper.

Synonyms:

- amenable
- compliant
- docile

adjective:

- (of a situation) easy to solve or handle

Once it was thoroughly investigated, the problem proved to be not so tractable.

Synonyms:

- manageable
- fixable
- crackable

176. Transient

adjective:

- not lasting, enduring, or permanent; transitory

The rainbow is a transient spectacle, fading away soon after it appears.

Synonyms:

- ephemeral
- fleeting
- evanescent

177. Ubiquitous

adjective:

- being everywhere at once

The influence of technology is ubiquitous in the modern world.

Synonyms:

- omnipresent
- pervasive
- universal

178. Underscore

verb:

- emphasize or show the importance of something

The accident underscores the danger of driving while distracted.

Synonyms:

- highlight
- accentuate
- foreground

179. Venal

adjective:

- open to bribery or corruption

The venal politician was found guilty of taking bribes.

Synonyms:

- grafting
- unscrupulous
- mercenary

180. Venerateverb:

- regard with deep respect or reverence

In many cultures, ancestors are venerated and considered sources of wisdom.

Synonyms:

- adulate
- hallow
- deify

Group 7181. Appease*verb:

- calm someone down

The parents bought toys to appease their upset child.

Synonyms:

- placate
- pacify
- mollify

verb:

- satisfy a demand or desire

No amount of food could appease his appetite.

Synonyms:

- relieve
- gratify
- quench

182. Arbitraryadjective:

- determined by chance, not reason

The arbitrary nature of the lottery means that anyone can win.

Synonyms:

- capricious
- erratic
- haphazard

183. Archaicadjective:

- ancient or outmoded; out of date

The archaic legal language was difficult for the modern reader to understand.

Synonyms:

- anachronistic
- obsolete
- antiquated

184. Clamorousadjective:

- characterized by extremely loud noise

The crowd became clamorous as the hours passed, eager for the event to start.

Synonyms:

- vociferous
- raucous
- rowdy

185. Dearthnoun:

- lack of something in a particular area

There is a dearth of affordable housing in most major cities.

Synonyms:

- scarcity
- shortfall
- want

186. Explicableadjective:

- able to be explained or understood

The stock market is explicable if you understand economics.

Synonyms:

- comprehensible
- interpretable
- intelligible

187. Hyperbolenoun:

- exaggeration to make a point or be funny

Saying "I've told you a million times" is an example of hyperbole.

Synonyms:

- overstatement
- embellishment
- amplification

188. Immutableadjective:

- not capable of being changed

The basic principles of human rights are considered immutable.

Synonyms:

- rigid
- indelible
- entrenched

189. Indefatigableadjective:

- highly determined; resistant to tiring out

The indefatigable scientist worked on her research late into the night.

Synonyms:

- unwearying
- unflagging
- unrelenting

190. Indolentadjective:

- habitually lazy; averse to activity

He was indolent and rarely helped with household chores.

Synonyms:

- idle
- slothful
- lackadaisical

191. Insularadjective:

- limited in outlook or experience; narrow

Living in a small, rural community can sometimes lead to an insular worldview.

Synonyms:

- parochial
- provincial
- myopic

192. Intransigentadjective:

- refusing to compromise; stubborn

The intransigent attitude of both parties led to the stalemate in negotiations.

Synonyms:

- unyielding
- unwavering
- obstinate

193. Intrepidadjective:

- resolutely fearless; brave

The intrepid firefighters rushed into the burning building.

Synonyms:

- dauntless
- mettlesome
- plucky

194. Irreverentadjective:

- lacking proper respect or seriousness

His irreverent humor often offended more conservative people.

Synonyms:

- derisive
- insolent
- impertinent

195. Loatheverb:

- dislike greatly, often with disgust

He loathes doing laundry more than any other chore.

Synonyms:

- abhor
- detest
- abominate

196. Malignadjective:

- evil and harmful

His malign influence had a detrimental effect on the team's morale.

Synonyms:

- malevolent
- inimical
- malicious

verb:

- speak about someone in a bitter and critical manner

It's unfair to malign someone based on hearsay and rumors.

Synonyms:

- defame
- smear
- vilify

197. Malleableadjective:

- changeable or flexible; capable of being influenced

Children's minds are highly malleable and influenced by their surroundings.

Synonyms:

- susceptible
- pliable
- amenable

198. Neophytenoun:

- an amateur or novice in a field

As a neophyte in gardening, she had a lot to learn about plants and soil.

Synonyms:

- tyro
- initiate
- fledgling

199. Plasticadjective:

- capable of being molded; flexible

The child's plastic mind quickly absorbed the new language.

Synonyms:

- malleable
- ductile
- pliant

adjective:

- artificial; unnatural

The child's plastic mind quickly absorbed the new language.

Synonyms:

- pseudo
- ersatz
- spurious

200. Platitudenoun:

- a trite or banal remark or statement

Politicians often use platitudes to appeal to common sentiments.

Synonyms:

- banality
- truism
- bromide

201. Prescientadjective:

- possessing foresight of upcoming events

Her prescient predictions about the market saved her a lot of money.

Synonyms:

- prophetic
- clairvoyant
- prognostic

202. Pristineadjective:

- in its original, unspoiled state

The pristine beauty of the untouched island was breathtaking.

Synonyms:

- immaculate
- flawless
- untarnished

203. Reproachverb:

- express criticism towards; reprimand

She was reproached for not trying hard enough during the match.

Synonyms:

- rebuke
- admonish
- censure

204. Robustadjective:

- capable of surviving despite adverse conditions

Only the most robust plants can survive the tundra.

Synonyms:

- resilient
- rugged
- sturdy

adjective:

- (of an object, person, or organization) strong and powerful

The company survived the recession due to its robust income streams.

Synonyms:

- solid
- vigorous
- healthy

205. Salubriousadjective:

- promoting health or well-being

The doctor recommended a salubrious diet and regular exercise.

Synonyms:

- salutary
- beneficial
- healthful

adjective:

- (of a place or accommodation) pleasant

The hotel room was salubrious.

Synonyms:

- agreeable
- luxurious
- grand

206. Sanctionverb:

- authorize; permit

The government sanctioned the use of force if necessary.

Synonyms:

- endorse
- license
- consent to

verb:

- penalize; punish

The judge was sanctioned for his obvious bias.

Synonyms:

- censure
- discipline
- chastise

207. Sedulous

adjective:

- paying attention to details; diligent

With sedulous attention to detail, she proofread the entire manuscript.

Synonyms:

- meticulous
- assiduous
- punctilious

208. Soporific

adjective:

- causing sleep or lethargy

His voice was a gentle, soporific murmur as he read the bedtime story.

Synonyms:

- somnolent
- sedative
- tranquilizing

209. Stern

adjective:

- hard, harsh, or severe in manner

His stern demeanor was intimidating to his subordinates.

Synonyms:

- forbidding
- grim
- stringent

210. Tendentious

adjective:

- biased toward a particular view, often a provocative one

The news article was criticized for its tendentious depiction of the event.

Synonyms:

- prejudiced
- dogmatic
- partial

Group 8

211. Accentuate

verb:

- give emphasis or draw attention to something

The high heels accentuate her long, graceful legs.

Synonyms:

- underscore
- foreground
- accent

212. Conjectural

adjective:

- pertaining to a guess or inference made with limited data

Without more information, his explanation remained conjectural.

Synonyms:

- speculative
- putative
- suppositional

213. Convivial

adjective:

- demonstrating a jovial nature or a fondness for festivities and companionship

The family reunion was a convivial event with laughter and storytelling.

Synonyms:

- amiable
- cordial
- genial

214. Decadent

adjective:

- displaying excessive indulgence, sometimes to a morally degenerate extent

The extravagant party was a display of decadent luxury.

Synonyms:

- dissolute
- depraved
- dissipated

215. Egregious

adjective:

- remarkably bad or shocking, to a conspicuous degree

His refusal to apologize for the egregious error was shocking.

Synonyms:

- appalling
- dreadful
- grievous

216. Evanescent

adjective:

- vanishing or fading away quickly, like mist or a phantom

Her evanescent smile hinted at her fleeting thoughts.

Synonyms:

- ephemeral
- fleeting
- transitory

217. Flamboyant

adjective:

- characterized by a showy, confident, or audacious display

His flamboyant attire always made him stand out in a crowd.

Synonyms:

- ostentatious
- exuberant
- theatrical

218. Forestall

verb:

- prevent something by taking strategic action in advance

He tried to forestall criticism by announcing his decision ahead of time.

Synonyms:

- preempt
- thwart
- impede

219. Gainsay

verb:

- deny or refute an assertion or argument

It was difficult to gainsay her argument because her facts were well-researched.

Synonyms:

- controvert
- repudiate
- refute

220. Galvanize

verb:

- inspire or stir up to action or heightened activity

The stirring speech galvanized the crowd into action.

Synonyms:

- prod
- rouse
- invigorate

221. Indiscriminate

adjective:

- lacking selectivity or judgment, often with potentially harmful effects

The indiscriminate use of pesticides is harmful to the environment.

Synonyms:

- aimless
- haphazard
- blanket

222. Innocuous

adjective:

- harmless, having no ill effect

The joke was innocuous, meant to amuse rather than offend.

Synonyms:

- benign
- innoxious
- anodyne

223. Momentary

adjective:

- lasting for a brief moment or interval

There was a momentary pause before the crowd erupted in applause.

Synonyms:

- transitory
- evanescent
- transient

224. Mundane

adjective:

- commonplace or ordinary, lacking excitement

His daily routine consisted of mundane tasks like washing dishes and sweeping floors.

Synonyms:

- humdrum
- tedious
- prosaic

225. Nettlesome

adjective:

- causing irritation or annoyance

His constant humming was a nettlesome habit.

Synonyms:

- trying
- vexing
- irksome

226. Nullify

verb:

- To render ineffective, cancel out or invalidate.

The judge's decision could nullify the previous ruling.

Synonyms:

- annul
- rescind
- void

227. Obviate

verb:

- sidestep or bypass a potential problem or difficulty

His meticulous preparation obviated any risk of failure.

Synonyms:

- preclude
- avert
- rule out

228. Omnipresent

adjective:

- existing or seeming to exist everywhere at once

With the internet, information is now virtually omnipresent.

Synonyms:

- ubiquitous
- universal
- rife

229. Oust

verb:

- displace or eject from a position or place

The board decided to oust the CEO after a series of scandals.

Synonyms:

- expel
- depose
- topple

230. Palpable

adjective:

- tangible, perceptible, or clearly noticeable

Her excitement was palpable as she opened the gift.

Synonyms:

- discernible
- concrete
- patent

231. Perfidy

noun:

- act of betrayal or unfaithfulness

The king never forgave the perfidy of his trusted advisor.

Synonyms:

- treachery
- duplicity
- infidelity

232. Profuse

adjective:

- abundant, plentiful, or occurring in large amounts

He offered his profuse thanks to everyone who supported him.

Synonyms:

- copious
- prolific
- ample

233. Pugnacious

adjective:

- quick to engage in a conflict or argument; combative

His pugnacious demeanor often got him into heated debates.

Synonyms:

- belligerent
- bellicose
- truculent

234. Sagacious

adjective:

- demonstrating wisdom or sound judgment

The sagacious investor rarely made a bad business decision.

Synonyms:

- astute
- penetrating
- perspicacious

235. Sanguine

adjective:

- cheerfully optimistic, particularly in a difficult situation

Despite the setbacks, she remained sanguine about their prospects for success.

Synonyms:

- bullish
- buoyant
- upbeat

236. Scant

adjective:

- hardly sufficient, meager, or minimal

With scant resources, they managed to complete the project on time.

Synonyms:

- negligible
- deficient
- inadequate

237. Skullduggery

noun:

- sneaky or dishonest actions

The election was rife with skullduggery and corruption.

Synonyms:

- swindling
- unscrupulousness
- chicanery

238. Trivial

adjective:

- of minor significance or value

They spent the whole meeting arguing about trivial matters.

Synonyms:

- inconsequential
- frivolous
- superficial

239. Utilitarian

adjective:

- emphasizing practicality and functionality over aesthetics

The utilitarian design of the kitchen prioritized space and efficiency.

Synonyms:

- pragmatic
- sensible
- realistic

240. Vapid

adjective:

- uninteresting, lacking flavor or spark

The conversation was vapid and unstimulating, making him wish for an early exit.

Synonyms:

- insipid
- anemic
- dull

Group 9

241. Boorish

adjective:

- rude or unrefined in manners or behavior

His boorish behavior at the dinner party embarrassed his wife.

Synonyms:

- coarse
- uncouth
- discourteous

242. Brook

verb:

- to tolerate or endure something, especially an annoyance

She would not brook any interruptions during her presentation.

Synonyms:

- abide
- stand
- stomach

243. Circumspect

adjective:

- cautious or wary, especially when considering potential consequences

She was circumspect about sharing personal information at work.

Synonyms:

- wary
- chary
- guarded

244. Comity

noun:

- a courteous harmony or mutual respect toward others

The neighboring countries maintained comity through years of potential conflicts.

Synonyms:

- amicability
- civility
- goodwill

245. Commensurate

adjective:

- comparable in size, extent, or degree; proportionate

His salary increase was commensurate with his additional responsibilities.

Synonyms:

- equivalent
- corresponding
- proportional to

246. Cordial

adjective:

- characterized by warmth and sincerity

They shared a cordial handshake, signaling a positive start to the negotiations.

Synonyms:

- amiable
- affectionate
- genial

247. Deleterious

adjective:

- having a harmful effect

Smoking has a deleterious effect on lung health.

Synonyms:

- inimical
- adverse
- injurious

248. Dichotomy

noun:

- a split into two contrasting or opposite parts

The dichotomy between urban and rural lifestyles was evident in the debate.

Synonyms:

- chasm
- disjunction
- polarity

249. Edify

verb:

- enlighten or uplift through knowledge; teach

The seminar aimed to edify attendees about environmental conservation.

Synonyms:

- educate
- cultivate
- indoctrinate

250. Elicit

verb:

- extract a reply or action; provoke

The interviewer's question managed to elicit a candid reply from the celebrity.

Synonyms:

- evoke
- draw out
- induce

251. Erudite

adjective:

- possessing great knowledge, typically from study or research

The professor was an erudite scholar who authored several renowned papers.

Synonyms:

- learned
- scholarly
- intellectual

252. Fecund

adjective:

- fertile or highly productive

The fecund soil of the valley yielded bountiful harvests.

Synonyms:

- fruitful
- prolific
- thriving

253. Feeble

adjective:

- weak; deficient in strength

After his illness, he felt too feeble to go for a walk.

Synonyms:

- frail
- sickly
- enfeebled

254. Felicitousadjective:

- well-suited or apt

Her felicitous remarks made everyone at the gathering smile.

Synonyms:

- fitting
- pertinent
- germane

adjective

- causing delight or satisfaction

The team's victory came at a felicitous time, boosting morale when it was needed the most.

Synonyms:

- fortunate
- encouraging
- favorable

255. Forbearverb:

- refrain or abstain from doing something

She chose to forbear commenting until she had all the facts.

Synonyms:

- eschew
- desist
- shun

256. Haphazardadjective:

- lacking clear planning, order, or direction

The files were arranged in a haphazard manner, making it hard to locate anything.

Synonyms:

- unsystematic
- indiscriminate
- arbitrary

257. Hodgepodgenoun:

- a mixture or assortment of different things

His bedroom was a hodgepodge of posters, books, and random trinkets.

Synonyms:

- melange
- jumble
- medley

258. Impedeverb:

- obstruct or hinder progress

The fallen tree was large enough to impede traffic for hours.

Synonyms:

- curb
- hamper
- check

259. Impetuousadjective:

- rash or hasty in action or decision

His impetuous decision to buy the car led to some financial troubles.

Synonyms:

- impulsive
- reckless
- foolhardy

260. Irascibleadjective:

- easily angered or irritated

The old man was known for his irascible temper, especially in the mornings.

Synonyms:

- snappish
- waspish
- surly

261. Mercenary

adjective:

- motivated primarily by a desire for monetary or material gain

His mercenary approach to business left him with few loyal friends.

Synonyms:

- grasping
- avaricious
- rapacious

262. Meticulous

adjective:

- exhibiting great care to detail

Her meticulous notes helped her excel in exams.

Synonyms:

- scrupulous
- punctilious
- painstaking

263. Mordant

adjective:

- biting or sharply critical in thought or expression

His mordant wit often left others feeling a bit stung.

Synonyms:

- trenchant
- caustic
- acerbic

264. Outstrip

verb:

- surpass or do better than

The new product quickly outstripped its competitors in terms of sales.

Synonyms:

- outpace
- overshadow
- eclipse

265. Precarious

adjective:

- uncertain and likely to cause danger

The hiker found himself in a precarious position on the mountain's edge.

Synonyms:

- insecure
- perilous
- treacherous

266. Quirky

adjective:

- unusual in an endearing or peculiar way

Her quirky fashion sense always made her stand out.

Synonyms:

- eccentric
- unorthodox
- idiosyncratic

267. Repudiate

verb:

- reject or refute

The politician was quick to repudiate the rumors about his past.

Synonyms:

- forswear
- rebut
- disavow

268. Tact

noun:

- skill in handling difficult situations without causing offense

She showed great tact when mediating the argument between her friends.

Synonyms:

- delicacy
- diplomacy
- discretion

269. Triflingadjective:

- lacking significance or importance

Don't waste time on trifling matters when the main issue remains unresolved.

Synonyms:

- trivial
- frivolous
- incidental

270. Turbulentadjective:

- full of conflict or chaos

The airplane experienced turbulent conditions during the storm.

Synonyms:

- tempestuous
- tumultuous
- anarchic

Group 10271. Acumen*noun:

- quickness and keenness in understanding and judgment

Her business acumen is evident in the company's continued growth.

Synonyms:

- shrewdness
- acuity
- sharpness

272. Antithesisnoun:

- the direct opposite or contrast

Calm is the antithesis of chaos.

Synonyms:

- converse
- reverse
- inverse

273. Ascribeverb:

- attribute or credit something to a particular cause or source

The teacher ascribed his success to hard work and determination.

Synonyms:

- assign
- accredit
- impute

274. Befuddledadjective:

- confused, bewildered, or perplexed

The complex equations left him completely befuddled.

Synonyms:

- baffled
- stumped
- nonplussed

275. Eschewverb:

- intentionally avoid or abstain from

He decided to eschew alcohol for a month.

Synonyms:

- forgo
- abjure
- renounce

276. Esotericadjective:

- understood by few or a small group of people

The esoteric lecture was only understood by a few specialists in the audience.

Synonyms:

- recondite
- arcane
- abstruse

277. Evasiveadjective:

- indirect or not straightforward; avoiding confrontation

When asked about his plans, he gave an evasive answer.

Synonyms:

- prevaricating
- equivocal
- vague

278. Exculpateverb:

- clear from blame or guilt

The evidence served to exculpate the defendant from the accusations.

Synonyms:

- acquit
- absolve
- exonerate

279. Expediteverb:

- accelerate or speed up a process or action

We paid an extra fee to expedite the delivery of the package.

Synonyms:

- hasten
- quicken
- facilitate

280. Fastidiousadjective:

- showing great care and attention to detail; hard to please

She is fastidious about her appearance, ensuring every detail is perfect.

Synonyms:

- scrupulous
- punctilious
- painstaking

281. Feignverb:

- pretend or simulate

She tried to feign surprise, but I knew she'd already heard the news.

Synonyms:

- affect
- posture
- masquerade

282. Furtiveadjective:

- sneaky or secretive, especially due to guilt

The student gave a furtive glance to his neighbor's paper during the exam.

Synonyms:

- surreptitious
- covert
- clandestine

283. Hamperverb:

- obstruct or hinder progress

The storm hampered our travel plans.

Synonyms:

- inhibit
- curb
- foil

284. Indispensableadjective:

- completely necessary; essential

Fresh water is indispensable for human survival.

Synonyms:

- crucial
- requisite
- imperative

285. Lamentverb:

- express deep sorrow or regret

She lamented the loss of her cherished necklace.

Synonyms:

- mourn
- wail
- weep

286. Myopic

adjective:

- short-sighted; lacking creativity

A myopic approach to environmental issues can lead to long-term problems.

Synonyms:

- narrow-minded
- insular
- parochial

287. Nonchalant

adjective:

- appearing casually calm or indifferent

Despite the chaos around her, she remained nonchalant.

Synonyms:

- collected
- blasé
- insouciant

288. Partial

adjective:

- prejudiced or biased toward one side

He's partial to chocolate desserts over fruity ones.

Synonyms:

- partisan
- skewed
- discriminatory

289. Pensive

adjective:

- deep in thought

She sat in a pensive mood, gazing out the window.

Synonyms:

- reflective
- introspective
- ruminative

290. Portend

verb:

- indicate or warn that something, often unpleasant, is going to happen

The dark clouds portend an approaching storm.

Synonyms:

- presage
- augur
- foreshadow

291. Provincial

adjective:

- narrow in perspective; not sophisticated

Despite his provincial attitudes, he was a kind-hearted man.

Synonyms:

- insular
- parochial
- myopic

292. Rudimentary

adjective:

- basic or elementary; in the earliest stages of development

His understanding of the subject is still quite rudimentary.

Synonyms:

- primitive
- crude
- embryonic

293. Salutary

adjective:

- beneficial, especially in promoting health or well-being

A morning jog can have a salutary effect on your mood.

Synonyms:

- productive
- valuable
- salubrious

294. Sever

verb:

- cut off or put an end to

He decided to sever all ties with his former colleagues.

Synonyms:

- cleave
- suspend
- rupture

295. Slight

verb:

- treat with disrespect or neglect;
insult

He felt slighted when they didn't invite him to the party.

Synonyms:

- snub
- disregard
- rebuff

296. Somnolent

adjective:

- sleepy or drowsy

The lecture's monotone delivery had a somnolent effect on the audience.

Synonyms:

- soporific
- enervated
- languorous

297. Stoic

adjective:

- unaffected by pain or distress;
showing no emotion

Despite the challenges, she remained stoic and resolute.

Synonyms:

- phlegmatic
- resigned
- impassive

298. Supersede

verb:

- replace or take the place of

New technologies often supersede the old ones.

Synonyms:

- displace
- supplant
- succeed

299. Tout

verb:

- promote or praise energetically

He was always touting the benefits of a healthy lifestyle.

Synonyms:

- commend
- endorse
- urge

300. Wane

verb:

- decrease in power, size, or intensity

As the night progressed, the party's energy began to wane.

Synonyms:

- dwindle
- subside
- ebb

Group 11

301. Abhor

verb:

- detest or regard with deep hatred

She abhors cruelty in any form.

Synonyms:

- loathe
- despise
- abominate

302. Boisterous

adjective:

- energetic, noisy, and lively

The boisterous crowd cheered for their favorite team.

Synonyms:

- animated
- exuberant
- ebullient

303. Chivalrous

adjective:

- honorable and polite

He displayed chivalrous behavior by holding the door open for her.

Synonyms:

- gallant
- courteous
- gentle

304. Churlish

adjective:

- rude or lacking good manners

His churlish reply caught everyone off guard.

Synonyms:

- ungracious
- boorish
- loutish

305. Clandestine

adjective:

- secretive; avoiding attention

They held clandestine meetings to plan the surprise party.

Synonyms:

- covert
- furtive
- stealthy

306. Complacent

adjective:

- smugly self-satisfied, often without awareness of potential dangers

The team became complacent after their early successes.

Synonyms:

- self-congratulatory
- gloating
- proud

307. Cumbersome

adjective:

- large, heavy, slow or complicated

The old computer system was cumbersome and slow.

Synonyms:

- unwieldy
- ungainly
- hefty

308. Debilitating

adjective:

- weakening or impairing strength

The disease had a debilitating effect on him.

Synonyms:

- enervating
- enfeebling
- devitalizing

309. Deliberate

verb:

- think over or discuss carefully

The committee will deliberate on the matter before reaching a final decision.

Synonyms:

- ponder
- contemplate
- brood over

adjective:

- intentional

It was a deliberate act of kindness.

Synonyms:

- conscious
- purposeful
- premeditated

310. Droll

adjective:

- amusing in a quirky or unusual way

His droll anecdotes always made us chuckle.

Synonyms:

- mirthful
- hilarious
- humorous

311. Eccentric

adjective:

- deviating from conventional behavior; quirky

The artist was known for his eccentric dress sense.

Synonyms:

- abnormal
- aberrant
- anomalous

312. Fractious

adjective:

- quarrelsome and irritable; unruly

The fractious toddler threw a tantrum in the store.

Synonyms:

- grouchy
- irascible
- intractable

313. Limpid

adjective:

- clear, transparent, or easy to understand

The limpid waters of the lake reflected the clear blue sky.

Synonyms:

- lucid
- coherent
- comprehensible

314. Mawkish

adjective:

- overly sentimental in a way that seems exaggerated or insincere

The movie's mawkish ending left some audience members rolling their eyes.

Synonyms:

- cloying
- saccharine
- sickly

315. Obeisance

noun:

- reverence for an individual

The knight paid obeisance to the queen.

Synonyms:

- homage
- adoration
- veneration

316. Ostentatious

adjective:

- showy or designed to impress

Her ostentatious jewelry drew many envious glances.

Synonyms:

- pretentious
- flamboyant
- affected

317. Panacea

noun:

- a perfect cure for something

There's no single panacea for the economic challenges we face.

Synonyms:

- cure-all
- elixir
- nostrum

318. Perfunctoryadjective:

- done without enthusiasm or effort;

His handshake was perfunctory, lacking warmth.

Synonyms:

- cursory
- desultory
- superficial

319. Perilousadjective:

- risky and hazardous

The mountain climbers faced perilous conditions.

Synonyms:

- treacherous
- precarious
- insecure

320. Pervasiveadjective:

- spreading quickly and in great numbers

The influence of technology is pervasive in modern society.

Synonyms:

- prevalent
- rife
- ubiquitous

321. Precludeverb:

- prevent something from occurring

His injury precluded him from competing in the race.

Synonyms:

- block
- impede
- hinder

322. Predilectionnoun:

- preference or bias towards something

He has a predilection for spicy foods.

Synonyms:

- fondness
- partiality
- penchant

323. Rapaciousadjective:

- very greedy

The rapacious corporation was always looking to expand, regardless of the consequences.

Synonyms:

- grasping
- avaricious
- acquisitive

324. Relishverb:

- take great pleasure or delight in

She relished the opportunity to showcase her skills.

Synonyms:

- adore
- savor
- rejoice in

325. Satiricaladjective:

- using humor or irony to criticize or mock

The satirical play poked fun at societal norms.

Synonyms:

- sarcastic
- sardonic
- scornful

326. Shamadjective:

- fake; not genuine

The man peddled sham remedies to a gullible clientele.

Synonyms:

- bogus
- spurious
- fraudulent

327. Skirt

verb:

- go around or avoid something, especially an issue or obstacle

He skirted the difficult question by changing the topic.

Synonyms:

- evade
- sidestep
- circumvent

328. Sluggish

adjective:

- lacking energy; slow and listless

After a large meal, he felt sluggish and ready for a nap.

Synonyms:

- inert
- torpid
- lethargic

329. Spartan

adjective:

- marked by simplicity, frugality, and avoidance of luxury

The monk's room was spartan, with only essential items.

Synonyms:

- austere
- stringent
- ascetic

330. Truculent

adjective:

- aggressively combative or confrontational

The truculent student constantly challenged the teacher's authority.

Synonyms:

- pugnacious
- bellicose
- obstreperous

Group 12

331. Acrimonious

adjective:

- bitter and sharp in language or tone

Their divorce was acrimonious, with both parties hurling insults.

Synonyms:

- caustic
- scathing
- astringent

332. Belligerent

adjective:

- argumentative, threatening, or aggressive

His belligerent attitude made it hard to have a calm conversation.

Synonyms:

- pugnacious
- bellicose
- truculent

333. Beneficent

adjective:

- kind and charitable, producing good results or benefits

The beneficent organization provided meals to the homeless.

Synonyms:

- altruistic
- humanitarian
- benevolent

334. Canny

adjective:

- shrewd and cautious

Her canny investments made her a millionaire.

Synonyms:

- astute
- discerning
- acute

335. Cavalier

adjective:

- exhibiting an overly casual attitude; unconcerned

His cavalier dismissal of the issue upset many.

Synonyms:

- offhand
- insouciant
- dismissive

336. Distressed

adjective:

- experiencing nervousness, irritation, or sadness

The distressed child sought comfort from his mother.

Synonyms:

- tormented
- perturbed
- afflicted

337. Dwindling

adjective:

- decreasing steadily in size or quantity

The dwindling supplies made survival even more challenging.

Synonyms:

- diminishing
- shrinking
- contracting

338. Eclipse

verb:

- overshadow or surpass

The success of her latest book eclipsed all her previous works.

Synonyms:

- outshine
- outstrip
- upstage

339. Encyclopedic

adjective:

- thorough; comprehensive in scope

His encyclopedic knowledge of history impressed everyone.

Synonyms:

- exhaustive
- wide-ranging
- all-inclusive

340. Exacerbate

verb:

- make a situation or condition worse

His shouting only served to exacerbate the argument.

Synonyms:

- inflame
- compound
- aggravate

341. Exasperated

adjective:

- severely irritated or angry

She was exasperated by the constant interruptions.

Synonyms:

- infuriated
- enraged
- vexed

342. Fungible

adjective:

- interchangeable for another item of a similar type

Oil and cash are considered fungible commodities.

Synonyms:

- exchangeable
- equivalent
- indistinguishable

343. Hackneyed

adjective:

- lacking creativity; derivative and overused

"Love at first sight" is a hackneyed plot in romance novels.

Synonyms:

- trite
- banal
- pedestrian

344. Incongruous

adjective:

- out of place; lacking harmony

The modern building looked incongruous in the historic district.

Synonyms:

- clashing
- jarring
- discordant

345. Interchangeable

adjective:

- capable of being used in place of each other

The parts are interchangeable between the different models.

Synonyms:

- fungible
- uniform
- homogeneous

346. Laconic

adjective:

- economical with words; quiet and reserved

His laconic reply was simply, "No."

Synonyms:

- terse
- pithy
- taciturn

347. Lucrative

adjective:

- producing a significant amount of money

Selling rare antiques can be a lucrative business.

Synonyms:

- gainful
- remunerative
- fruitful

348. Magisterial

adjective:

- possessing great authority

The judge spoke in a magisterial tone.

Synonyms:

- masterful
- authoritative
- lordly

adjective:

- exercising authority in an excessive manner

His magisterial tone left no room for debate.

Synonyms:

- domineering
- dictatorial
- overbearing

349. Onerous

adjective:

- involving a heavy burden; challenging or difficult

The onerous task of cleaning the entire house was left to her.

Synonyms:

- formidable
- taxing
- Herculean

350. Opprobrium

noun:

- severe criticism or public shame

He faced opprobrium for his unethical actions.

Synonyms:

- vilification
- vituperation
- obloquy

351. Parsimonious

adjective:

- extremely frugal or stingy

His parsimonious habits meant he rarely treated others.

Synonyms:

- miserly
- stinting
- penurious

352. Peripheral

adjective:

- of marginal importance; minor

The issue was only of peripheral importance to the main discussion.

Synonyms:

- subsidiary
- tangential
- trivial

353. Provocative

adjective:

- causing outrage or irritation, often intentionally

His provocative statements stirred up controversy.

Synonyms:

- goading
- affronting
- galling

354. Renounce

verb:

- reject or give up

She decided to renounce her citizenship.

Synonyms:

- forswear
- abjure
- disavow

355. Tempestuous

adjective:

- (of emotions or actions) unrestrained and turbulent

Their relationship was tempestuous, with frequent arguments.

Synonyms:

- heated
- hysterical
- feverish

adjective:

- (of weather) extremely stormy

Only one boat captain was crazy enough to enter the tempestuous waters.

Synonyms:

- blustery
- gusty
- squally

356. Tenable

adjective:

- (of an idea or method) justifiable and rational

His argument was hardly tenable in the face of clear evidence.

Synonyms:

- sound
- plausible
- sustainable

357. Transgression

noun:

- a violation of a law, rule, or social norm

For his transgressions, he was sentenced to community service.

Synonyms:

- peccadillo
- misdemeanor
- indiscretion

358. Urbane

adjective:

- refined, sophisticated, and courteous

He was urbane in manner, making everyone feel comfortable.

Synonyms:

- suave
- debonair
- cultivated

359. Verisimilitude

noun:

- appearance or semblance of truth or reality; believability.

The film had an impressive verisimilitude due to its attention to detail.

Synonyms:

- authenticity
- credibility
- lifelikeness

360. Vitiate

verb:

- impair or corrupt the quality of something

Excessive use of clichés will vitiate the effectiveness of a speech.

Synonyms:

- taint
- contaminate
- sully

Group 13

361. Affinity

noun:

- a natural liking or connection to a person, thing, or idea

He has an affinity for painting, spending hours in his studio.

Synonyms:

- rapport
- accord
- inclination toward

noun:

- a similarity between two things

There's a natural affinity between math and physics.

Synonyms:

- resemblance
- kinship
- parallelism

362. Altruistic

adjective:

- showing generosity and concern for the welfare of others

The altruistic volunteer spent weekends helping at the homeless shelter.

Synonyms:

- compassionate
- benevolent
- magnanimous

363. Baroque

adjective:

- overly detailed or ornamental

The dress she wore to the event was decidedly baroque, with frills and embroideries everywhere.

Synonyms:

- overelaborate
- extravagant
- rococo

364. Byzantine

adjective:

- overly complex or intricate

Navigating the byzantine regulations required the help of an expert.

Synonyms:

- convoluted
- involved
- serpentine

365. Compromise

verb:

- weaken or diminish in quality, character, or value

Using low-quality ingredients can compromise the dish's flavor.

Synonyms:

- undermine
- jeopardize
- imperil

366. Conciliatory

adjective:

- intended to appease or calm someone down

His conciliatory gesture helped to resolve the argument.

Synonyms:

- placatory
- pacifying
- mollifying

367. Countenance

verb:

- accept or permit

He wouldn't countenance any criticism of his decision.

Synonyms:

- tolerate
- endure
- brook

noun:

- the look of a person's face or expression

Her countenance fell when she heard the bad news.

Synonyms:

- No great synonyms really.

368. Covert

adjective:

- hidden or concealed; not openly practiced

The spy was involved in several covert missions.

Synonyms:

- furtive
- surreptitious
- clandestine

369. Credible

adjective:

- able to be trusted; persuasive

The evidence was credible enough to support her case.

Synonyms:

- valid
- tenable
- compelling

370. Diffuse

verb:

- spread or disperse widely

The fragrance diffused throughout the room.

Synonyms:

- scatter
- disseminate
- promulgate

adjective:

- scattered over a large area

The light was diffuse, casting soft shadows across the room.

Synonyms:

- dispersed
- spread out
- distributed

371. Documentaryadjective:

- based on or reproducing real events or facts

The film was documentary in nature, capturing the reality of life in that region.

Synonyms:

- recorded
- chronicled
- archived

372. Exhaustiveadjective:

- thorough and comprehensive

She conducted an exhaustive review of the literature on the topic.

Synonyms:

- all-inclusive
- all-encompassing
- encyclopedic

373. Exhilaratingadjective:

- intensely exciting

The roller coaster ride was an exhilarating experience.

Synonyms:

- thrilling
- intoxicating
- invigorating

374. Extraneousadjective:

- lacking relevance; unnecessary

Please remove any extraneous information from the report.

Synonyms:

- immaterial
- inapposite
- incidental

375. Fervornoun:

- intense enthusiasm toward something

The crowd's fervor was evident during the final match.

Synonyms:

- ardor
- zeal
- keenness

376. Futileadjective:

- incapable of resulting in anything worthwhile

Despite their efforts, the search proved futile.

Synonyms:

- fruitless
- ineffectual
- vain

377. Illusoryadjective:

- unreal or based on illusion

His sense of victory was illusory, as new challenges awaited.

Synonyms:

- delusional
- bogus
- sham

378. Invidiousadjective:

- likely to cause resentment or envy

Making an invidious comparison between the two siblings was unfair.

Synonyms:

- awkward
- unpleasant
- undesirable

adjective:

- unfair; prejudiced against someone or something

The invidious policy discriminated against certain groups, causing widespread resentment.

Synonyms:

- unjust
- discriminatory
- iniquitous

379. Lethargic

adjective:

- sluggish; tired

After the heavy meal, he felt lethargic and drowsy.

Synonyms:

- torpid
- inert
- languid

380. Metaphorical

adjective:

- symbolic rather than literal

"A sea of troubles" is a metaphorical expression.

Synonyms:

- figurative
- allegorical
- allusive

381. Mimic

verb:

- to imitate or copy someone or something

He could mimic his favorite actors perfectly.

Synonyms:

- emulate
- caricature
- satirize

382. Numinous

adjective:

- having a spiritual or divine quality

The church had a numinous aura that calmed the visitors.

Synonyms:

- sacred
- otherworldly
- transcendent

383. Obscure

adjective:

- not clearly expressed or understood

He made an obscure reference to an old movie.

Synonyms:

- dubious
- hazy
- vague

verb:

- making something unclear and vague

The author intentionally obscures the true meaning of his books.

Synonyms:

- obfuscate
- cloud
- muddy

384. Overt

adjective:

- open and observable; not hidden or secret

Her overt criticism was surprising to many.

Synonyms:

- plain
- manifest
- patent

385. Pellucid

adjective:

- transparently clear in meaning or style

Her explanations were always pellucid, making complex ideas easy to grasp.

Synonyms:

- lucid
- unambiguous
- straightforward

adjective:

- (of a body of water or substance)
transparent and clear

Lake Tahoe is famous for its pellucid water.

Synonyms:

- limpid
- translucent
- crystalline

386. Perpetuate

verb:

- make (something) continue for an indefinite time

The movie served to perpetuate the myth of the noble outlaw.

Synonyms:

- sustain
- maintain
- prolong

387. Rational

adjective:

- based on clear thought or reason

He made a rational decision after considering all options.

Synonyms:

- cogent
- coherent
- judicious

388. Scathing

adjective:

- harshly or bitterly critical; vitriolic

The review was scathing, criticizing every aspect of the product.

Synonyms:

- mordant
- blistering
- caustic

389. Subtle

adjective:

- delicate or slight; not obvious

The dish had a subtle hint of rosemary.

Synonyms:

- minute
- understated
- subdued

390. Superficial

adjective:

- existing, occurring, or located on the surface

The wound was superficial and didn't require stitches.

Synonyms:

- exterior
- outer
- peripheral

adjective:

- not profound or thorough

Sarah gave the car merely a superficial cleaning.

Synonyms:

- cursory
- desultory
- perfunctory

Group 14

391. Acquiesce

verb:

- agree or consent quietly without objection

Though unhappy with the decision, she chose to acquiesce rather than argue.

Synonyms:

- abide by
- countenance
- brook

392. Adroit

adjective:

- deft, dexterous, or skillful

The adroit artist created a masterpiece with just a few strokes of paint.

Synonyms:

- agile
- nimble
- quick-witted

393. Amend

verb:

- make changes to a document, law, or statement, usually to improve it

The company decided to amend its policies to be more environmentally friendly.

Synonyms:

- revise
- alter
- revamp

394. Animus

noun:

- strong dislike or enmity; hostile attitude

There was clear animus between the two rival politicians.

Synonyms:

- animosity
- malice
- enmity

395. Apologist

noun:

- a person who defends or supports something that is being criticized

As an apologist for the movement, he spent time explaining its principles.

Synonyms:

- advocate
- proponent
- apostle

396. Astringent

adjective:

- sharp or harsh in demeanor or style

Her critique was astringent but fair.

Synonyms:

- trenchant
- acerbic
- caustic

397. Collaborate

verb:

- work together on a project

The two authors decided to collaborate on a novel.

Synonyms:

- ally
- integrate
- cooperate

verb:

- cooperate deviously with an enemy

In War for the Planet of the Apes, some of the gorillas collaborated with the humans.

Synonyms:

- fraternize
- conspire
- collude

398. Competent

adjective:

- having sufficient skill, knowledge, ability, or qualifications

She is highly competent in her field and respected by her peers.

Synonyms:

- adept
- capable
- adroit

399. Correlate

verb:

- show a mutual relationship or connection between two or more things

The study aimed to correlate income levels with educational attainment.

Synonyms:

- correspond
- harmonize
- square

400. Deride

verb:

- ridicule or mock

Critics derided his performance as amateurish.

Synonyms:

- jeer at
- pillory
- disparage

401. Dictate

verb:

- give orders or commands

He dictated a letter to his secretary.

Synonyms:

- domineer
- lord over
- browbeat

402. Discreet

adjective:

- respectful of privacy or secrecy; inconspicuous

He made a discreet inquiry about the job opening.

Synonyms:

- chary
- circumspect
- unobtrusive

403. Divorced

adjective:

- separate from something that was previously connected

The author's work is completely divorced from reality.

Synonyms:

- disjointed
- severed
- alienated

404. Elitist

noun:

- a person who believes in the rule of an elite or privileged group

As an elitist, he looked down on those he considered unrefined.

Synonyms:

- snob
- aristocrat
- supremacist

adjective:

- believing oneself or a group to be superior to others

His elitist views were unpopular among the working class.

Synonyms:

- discriminatory
- pretentious
- haughty

405. Exacting

adjective:

- requiring a lot of care, effort, or attention

The exacting task required precision and patience.

Synonyms:

- stringent
- demanding
- onerous

406. Flummoxed

adjective:

- completely unable to understand; bewildered

The complex equation left the students flummoxed.

Synonyms:

- baffled
- bemused
- nonplussed

407. Fruitfuladjective:

- producing good or abundant results

Their partnership proved to be fruitful, leading to many successful projects.

Synonyms:

- productive
- gainful
- effectual

408. Inbornadjective:

- present from birth; innate

Her inborn talent for music was evident at a young age.

Synonyms:

- congenital
- inherent
- ingrained

409. Polymathnoun:

- a person with extraordinarily broad and comprehensive knowledge

Leonardo da Vinci was a true polymath, excelling in art, science, and engineering.

Synonyms:

- savant
- multi-disciplinarian
- erudite

410. Reticentadjective:

- keeping one's thoughts and opinions to oneself; reserved or restrained

Though an expert in his field, he was reticent about his own achievements.

Synonyms:

- inhibited
- diffident
- unassuming

411. Stringentadjective:

- strict or severe; tight

The company has stringent guidelines for safety.

Synonyms:

- rigid
- exacting
- draconian

412. Subservientadjective:

- obedient to an authority or other people

He had a subservient attitude that made him an easy target for manipulation.

Synonyms:

- submissive
- deferential
- servile

adjective:

- less important; inferior to

The marketing team was often viewed as subservient to the sales department.

Synonyms:

- secondary
- incidental
- ancillary

413. Surreptitiousadjective:

- done secretly or stealthily

He took a surreptitious glance at his watch during the meeting.

Synonyms:

- clandestine
- furtive
- covert

414. Tantalizingadjective:

- arousing desire or interest without fulfillment

The smell of freshly baked cookies was tantalizing.

Synonyms:

- teasing
- tormenting
- enticing

415. Tantamount

adjective:

- equivalent in effect or value

His silence was tantamount to an admission of guilt.

Synonyms:

- on par with
- amounting to
- commensurate with

416. Torpor

noun:

- a state of apathy or lethargy

The long, hot summer days led to a general torpor among the town's residents.

Synonyms:

- inertia
- languor
- idleness

417. Trenchant

adjective:

- keen and biting; vigorously articulate

She was known for her trenchant wit and clever repartees.

Synonyms:

- cutting
- penetrating
- mordant

418. Umbrage

noun:

- a feeling of anger or annoyance caused by something offensive

She took umbrage at his rude comment.

Synonyms:

- indignation
- vexation
- chagrin

419. Versatile

adjective:

- having varied uses or many functions; capable of doing many things

He's a versatile actor who has played roles in both comedies and dramas.

Synonyms:

- adaptable
- multifaceted
- protean

420. Wayward

adjective:

- obstinate, contrary and unpredictable

The wayward child often disobeyed and wandered off on his own.

Synonyms:

- bullheaded
- dogged
- inalcitrant

Group 15

421. Alienate

verb:

- make someone feel isolated and estranged

His behavior began to alienate his friends and family.

Synonyms:

- sever
- drive a wedge
- disunite

422. Apathy

noun:

- lack of interest or enthusiasm towards something

The team's losing streak led to apathy among the fans.

Synonyms:

- indifference
- passivity
- phlegm

423. Apropos

adjective:

- appropriate or relevant to the situation.

The quote she used in her speech was apropos for the current events.

Synonyms:

- pertinent
- apt
- apposite

424. Apt

adjective:

- suitable or appropriate

The documentary was an apt choice for the history class.

Synonyms:

- fitting
- applicable
- apposite

adjective:

- having a tendency toward something

He's apt to forget important dates.

Synonyms:

- inclined
- liable
- predisposed

adjective:

- quick to learn

The apt student solved the complex equation in mere seconds.

Synonyms:

- clever
- adept
- astute

425. Cloak

verb:

- conceal or disguise

The spy used a fake identity to cloak his true intentions.

Synonyms:

- veil
- shroud
- mask

426. Consensus

noun:

- general agreement among the members of a group

The group reached a consensus after much debate.

Synonyms:

- concord
- accord
- harmony

427. Distort

verb:

- give a false or misleading account of

The article distorts the truth to push an agenda.

Synonyms:

- manipulate
- skew
- warp

428. Divergent

adjective:

- growing further apart; disagreeing

They held divergent opinions on the issue.

Synonyms:

- disparate
- antithetical
- clashing

429. Elated

adjective:

- very happy or proud

She was elated after getting the promotion.

Synonyms:

- ecstatic
- jubilant
- euphoric

430. Enchant

verb:

- capture the attention or to charm

The music seemed to enchant her, as she lost herself in its melody.

Synonyms:

- captivate
- dazzle
- beguile

431. Entrenched

adjective:

- firmly ingrained and unlikely to change

His opinions were so entrenched that no one could change his mind.

Synonyms:

- rooted
- indelible
- immutable

432. Exotic

adjective:

- foreign, especially in an exciting way

The garden was filled with exotic flowers.

Synonyms:

- striking
- unconventional
- peculiar

433. Exploitative

adjective:

- taking unfair advantage of a person, group, or situation

The company was criticized for its exploitative practices.

Synonyms:

- predatory
- opportunistic
- extortionate

434. Foreseeable

adjective:

- able to be predicted or expected

No solution was in the foreseeable future, so they decided to pause and reconsider.

Synonyms:

- anticipated
- projected
- presumable

435. Forsake

verb:

- abandon or give up

He decided to forsake his old habits.

Synonyms:

- shun
- renounce
- forgo

436. Gratify

verb:

- please or satisfy; make content

Seeing his students succeed was enough to gratify the old teacher.

Synonyms:

- gladden
- indulge
- quench

337. Heed

verb:

- mind or regard with care; pay attention

The hiker failed to heed warnings about the dangerous trail.

Synonyms:

- mind
- follow
- consider

438. Judicious

adjective:

- having, characterized by, or done with good judgment or sound thinking

In handling the dispute, her judicious approach was appreciated by all parties involved.

Synonyms:

- prudent
- shrewd
- canny

439. Lucid

adjective:

- clear and easy to understand

The explanation was lucid and concise.

Synonyms:

- intelligible
- cogent
- articulate

440. Pertinent

adjective:

- important with regard to (a subject or matter); pertaining; relevant

She provided data pertinent to the case, shedding light on the mystery.

Synonyms:

- material
- apt
- germane

441. Propriety

noun:

- conformity to established standards of good or proper behavior

In the royal court, one had to act with the utmost propriety.

Synonyms:

- decorum
- etiquette
- discretion

442. Scintillating

adjective:

- brilliantly or impressively clever, exciting, amusing or witty

She gave a scintillating performance on stage.

Synonyms:

- vivacious
- dazzling
- coruscating

443. Sensational

adjective:

- exaggerated for effect, often sacrificing accuracy

The magazine is known for its sensational headlines.

Synonyms:

- overdramatized
- lurid
- melodramatic

444. Sophisticated

adjective:

- experienced, worldly, or cultured

His sophisticated taste in art and music suggested a worldly sensibility.

Synonyms:

- cosmopolitan
- cultivated
- urbane

adjective:

- advanced or intricate, often in tech

The laboratory uses sophisticated equipment to analyze DNA samples.

Synonyms:

- revolutionary
- elaborate
- trailblazing

445. Strife

noun:

- conflict or struggle

The political strife in the country was concerning.

Synonyms:

- friction
- discord
- dissension

446. Understated

adjective:

- expressed in a subtle, restrained, or low-key manner

His understated charm was often more appealing than overt gestures.

Synonyms:

- reserved
- modest
- discreet

447. Unscrupulous

adjective:

- without moral principles

The unscrupulous merchant was known to overcharge unsuspecting tourists.

Synonyms:

- amoral
- reprobate
- shameless

448. Veracity

noun:

- conformity to truth or accuracy

The journalist questioned the veracity of the politician's claims.

Synonyms:

- exactness
- authenticity
- fidelity

449. Virulent

adjective:

- extremely hostile or malicious; intensely acrimonious

The article had a virulent tone, attacking everyone with a differing opinion.

Synonyms:

- vitriolic
- malevolent
- spiteful

450. Volatile

adjective:

- likely to change unpredictably and quickly (usually for the worse)

The situation at the border remained volatile, with tensions rising daily.

Synonyms:

- explosive
- fraught
- turbulent

Group 16

451. Antedate

verb:

- occur before (something) in time

His journal entry antedates the official records.

Synonyms:

- precede
- predate
- come before

452. Banish

verb:

- expel from a place, especially as punishment; get rid of

She worked hard to banish those negative thoughts from her mind.

Synonyms:

- extradite
- exile
- dispel

453. Bridle

verb:

- control or restrain

She bridled her anger and responded calmly.

Synonyms:

- curb
- check
- stifle

454. Comply

verb:

- obey someone's rules or wishes; meet certain standards

The toys do not comply with safety guidelines.

Synonyms:

- abide by
- adhere to
- consent to

455. Crestfallen

adjective:

- disappointed, dispirited, or depressed

He looked crestfallen after hearing the results.

Synonyms:

- downhearted
- dejected
- glum

456. Curtail

verb:

- restrict or limit; decrease in quantity

She had to curtail her shopping habits due to financial constraints.

Synonyms:

- curb
- rein in
- truncate

457. Elucidate

verb:

- make clear; clarify or shed light on

He provided examples to elucidate his point.

Synonyms:

- illuminate
- explicate
- unravel

458. Evade

verb:

- avoid or escape from, typically in a cunning way

He amazingly evaded more than 30 police officers.

Synonyms:

- elude
- dodge
- sidestep

verb:

- deflect from giving a clear answer

He was a master at evading uncomfortable questions.

Synonyms:

- hedge
- be evasive about
- be equivocal about

459. Feckless

adjective:

- without skill, ineffective, incompetent

Despite his talents, his feckless attitude led to missed opportunities.

Synonyms:

- hopeless
- ineffectual
- inept

460. Fester

verb:

- (of a negative feeling or a problem) worsen, especially due to lack of attention

Old wounds can fester if not addressed.

Synonyms:

- rankle
- chafe
- smolder

461. Iconoclastic

adjective:

- challenging or overthrowing tradition or established beliefs

His iconoclastic views were both criticized and praised.

Synonyms:

- renegade
- heretical
- nonconformist

462. Immure

verb:

- imprison or isolate

The princess was immured in the castle.

Synonyms:

- confine
- incarcerate
- detain

463. Improvise

verb:

- create something spontaneously without preparation

When the script was lost, the actor decided to improvise.

Synonyms:

- extemporize
- ad lib
- contrive

464. Inhibit

verb:

- make difficult to accomplish; act as an obstacle

Fear can inhibit one from taking risks.

Synonyms:

- impede
- hamper
- check

465. Inscrutable

adjective:

- not easily understood; mysterious

His expressions were inscrutable, making it hard to predict his next move.

Synonyms:

- enigmatic
- impenetrable
- cryptic

466. Lionize

verb:

- treat someone as a celebrity or hero

The artist was lionized after his groundbreaking exhibition.

Synonyms:

- fete
- exalt
- venerate

467. Monotonous

adjective:

- lacking in variety, repetitively dull

His monotonous voice put everyone to sleep.

Synonyms:

- tedious
- wearisome
- humdrum

468. Peculiar

adjective:

- strange or unusual; specific to a particular place or group

There's a peculiar smell coming from the kitchen.

Synonyms:

- uncanny
- anomalous
- idiosyncratic

469. Premeditate

verb:

- consider or plan beforehand

The theft was clearly premeditated.

Synonyms:

- conspire
- scheme
- orchestrate

470. Profligate

adjective:

- inclined to waste resources or behave extravagantly

His profligate spending on luxury cars and lavish vacations soon left him in financial ruin.

Synonyms:

- improvident
- prodigal
- thriftless

471. Reconcile

verb:

- bring back or return to harmony; restore a relationship

She tried to reconcile her siblings after their disagreement.

Synonyms:

- harmonize
- square
- syncretize

472. Refine

verb:

- purify; bring to a pure state

They refine the metal to remove impurities and improve its quality.

Synonyms:

- purify
- distill
- cleanse

verb:

- improve in accuracy or excellence

She refined her skills by practicing daily.

Synonyms:

- revise
- fine-tune
- hone

473. Relinquish

verb:

- give up or release a claim, right, or possession

He had to relinquish his control over the project.

Synonyms:

- renounce
- cede
- forsake

474. Ruminate

verb:

- meditate or reflect; ponder over

She ruminated on the feedback she received.

Synonyms:

- contemplate
- mull over
- deliberate about

475. Skittish

adjective:

- easily scared or startled; timid; difficult to control

The skittish kitten darted under the couch at the slightest sound.

Synonyms:

- restive
- fidgety
- anxious

476. Superfluous

adjective:

- more than is necessary; excessive

Cutting out superfluous information made the report more coherent.

Synonyms:

- redundant
- expendable
- surplus

477. Synoptic

adjective:

- providing a general overview or summary

The synoptic report highlighted the main points of the project.

Synonyms:

- abridged
- condensed
- epitomized

478. Thorough

adjective:

- careful and complete concerning every detail

A thorough analysis of the data was conducted.

Synonyms:

- rigorous
- exhaustive
- scrupulous

479. Visionary

adjective:

- showing foresight or imagination

His visionary ideas often challenged the status quo.

Synonyms:

- inventive
- utopian
- quixotic

480. Vociferous

adjective:

- expressing opinions or feelings loudly and forcefully

The vociferous debate continued for hours.

Synonyms:

- vehement
- uninhibited
- outspoken

Group 17

481. Acclaim

verb:

- praise with great approval

The artist was acclaimed for his innovative designs.

Synonyms:

- applaud
- commend
- eulogize

noun:

- enthusiastic approval

The young author's debut novel received widespread acclaim.

Synonyms:

- ovation
- plaudits
- approbation

482. Ascertain

verb:

- find out or learn with certainty

She wanted to ascertain the truth behind the rumor.

Synonyms:

- determine
- deduce
- intuit

483. Assertive

adjective:

- confident and direct in claiming one's rights or expressing ideas

An assertive demeanor can help in negotiations.

Synonyms:

- decisive
- assured
- authoritative

484. Bogus

adjective:

- fake or fraudulent

The scam involved selling bogus insurance policies.

Synonyms:

- spurious
- sham
- ersatz

485. Cataclysmic

adjective:

- causing great disruption or upheaval

The cataclysmic event reshaped the entire landscape.

Synonyms:

- disastrous
- catastrophic
- calamitous

486. Circumscribe

verb:

- limit or restrict something narrowly

The law was designed to circumscribe corporate power.

Synonyms:

- confine
- curb
- bound

487. Complementary

adjective:

- enhancing or perfecting when combined with something else

Red wine and steak are considered complementary.

Synonyms:

- harmonious
- reciprocal
- compatible

488. Contentious

adjective:

- causing or likely to provoke disagreement

The issue became contentious at the meeting, leading to several heated arguments.

Synonyms:

- vehement
- quarrelsome
- heated

489. Disingenuous

adjective:

- pretending to be sincere or straightforward

His disingenuous apology was not well-received.

Synonyms:

- deceitful
- duplicitous
- dissembling

490. Divulge

verb:

- disclose or reveal information

She refused to divulge her source.

Synonyms:

- broadcast
- promulgate
- impart

491. Dogmatic

adjective:

- insisting on one's ideas without being open to others'

He had a dogmatic belief in his theory, despite evidence to the contrary.

Synonyms:

- emphatic
- adamant
- peremptory

492. Fallacious

adjective:

- false or mistaken

His argument was fallacious and easily debunked.

Synonyms:

- erroneous
- spurious
- specious

493. Foolhardy

adjective:

- recklessly daring; careless

It's foolhardy to hike without adequate preparation.

Synonyms:

- rash
- heedless
- imprudent

494. Hinder

verb:

- obstruct or delay progress

Lack of funds can hinder the research project.

Synonyms:

- hamper
- inhibit
- thwart

495. Impair

verb:

- weaken or affect negatively

Excessive drinking can impair judgment.

Synonyms:

- diminish
- blunt
- mar

496. Impugn

verb:

- challenge the truth or honesty of something

Critics impugn his motives for donating to charity.

Synonyms:

- dispute
- take issue
- contest

497. Incessant

adjective:

- constant or unending (of something bad or unpleasant)

The incessant noise from the construction site was annoying.

Synonyms:

- ceaseless
- unabating
- perpetual

498. Inclined

adjective:

- feeling a tendency or preference towards

She was inclined to accept the offer.

Synonyms:

- disposed
- biased toward
- liable

499. Inveterate

adjective:

- deep-rooted or long-established

He's an inveterate traveler, always exploring new places.

Synonyms:

- ingrained
- entrenched
- hardened

500. Miserly

adjective:

- reluctant to spend or share; greedy

The miserly old man hoarded all his wealth.

Synonyms:

- parsimonious
- stingy
- avaricious

501. Patent

adjective:

- clear or obvious

It's a patent fact that smoking is harmful.

Synonyms:

- plain
- manifest
- self-evident

502. Petulant

adjective:

- irritable or impatient, especially over minor issues

Her petulant behavior made her difficult to work with.

Synonyms:

- peevish
- cross
- irascible

503. Pithy

adjective:

- expressing ideas in a concise, meaningful manner

He had a knack for pithy comments.

Synonyms:

- terse
- succinct
- trenchant

504. Pliant

adjective:

- flexible or easily influenced

He was too pliant to the company's demands.

Synonyms:

- elastic
- malleable
- docile

505. Sanctimonious

adjective:

- giving the impression that one is morally superior

Her sanctimonious speeches irritated many.

Synonyms:

- self-righteous
- unctuous
- smug

506. Sound

adjective:

- based on reason, sense, or judgment

His decision was sound given the circumstances.

Synonyms:

- valid
- weighty
- cogent

507. Tarnish

verb:

- compromise, damage, or sully

The mayor's reputation was tarnished by the allegations of corruption.

Synonyms:

- smirch
- taint
- befoul

508. Tepid

adjective:

- exhibiting little passion or eagerness; lukewarm

The audience gave a tepid response to the performance.

Synonyms:

- apathetic
- halfhearted
- desultory

509. Upbraid

verb:

- criticize or scold severely

She upbraided him for his carelessness.

Synonyms:

- reprimand
- rebuke
- admonish

510. Vexation

noun:

- the state of being irritated or incensed

The delays caused much vexation among the passengers.

Synonyms:

- exasperation
- wrath
- chagrin

Group 18

511. Abet

verb:

- assist or encourage, usually in wrongdoing

He was not directly involved, but he did abet the thief in escaping.

Synonyms:

- back
- collude with
- connive with

512. Accessible

adjective:

- clear; capable of being understood

The author's writing style is accessible to many readers.

Synonyms:

- comprehensible
- penetrable
- fathomable

513. Acquisitive

adjective:

- eager to acquire and possess things

The company has an acquisitive nature, always looking to buy out smaller businesses.

Synonyms:

- greed
- covetous
- avaricious

514. Amalgamate

verb:

- merge or combine two or more things

Several companies amalgamated to form a corporate giant.

Synonyms:

- fuse
- coalesce
- meld

515. Attenuate

verb:

- weaken or lessen in force or thickness

The drug helps to attenuate the symptoms of the illness.

Synonyms:

- diminish
- dampen
- erode

516. Augment

verb:

- increase or make larger

He augmented his income by freelancing on the side.

Synonyms:

- supplement
- swell
- amplify

517. Aversion

noun:

- an intense or definite dislike

She has an aversion to loud noises.

Synonyms:

- abhorrence
- loathing
- antipathy

518. Blithe

adjective:

- showing indifference

His blithe attitude towards missing deadlines was infuriating.

Synonyms:

- heedless
- nonchalant
- blasé

519. Contempt

noun:

- the feeling or attitude of regarding someone or something as inferior

The judge viewed the defendant's lies with contempt.

Synonyms:

- scorn
- denigration
- opprobrium

520. Dawdle

verb:

- move slowly and without purpose

If we dawdle, we'll miss the beginning of the movie.

Synonyms:

- linger
- amble
- dally

521. Deflect

verb:

- change the direction or course of something; make someone deviate

His compliment was an attempt to deflect her from asking more questions.

Synonyms:

- sidetrack
- divert
- swerve

522. Discount

verb:

- regard something as being unimportant or incorrect

He discounted the rumors as mere gossip.

Synonyms:

- disregard
- overlook
- give no credence

523. Dissident

noun:

- one who disagrees or opposes authority

The dissident was arrested for speaking out against the government.

Synonyms:

- nonconformist
- renegade
- subversive

524. Efficacious

adjective:

- producing the desired effect; successful

The new software proved to be efficacious in managing our financial records.

Synonyms:

- effectual
- fruitful
- constructive

525. Equitableadjective:

- characterized by fairness and justice

The new policies aimed for a more equitable distribution of resources.

Synonyms:

- just
- impartial
- egalitarian

526. Erraticadjective:

- unpredictable and inconsistent

His erratic behavior made it hard to understand his intentions.

Synonyms:

- turbulent
- volatile
- wayward

527. Industriousadjective:

- hard-working and persistent

Sarah was the most industrious member of the team, often staying late to finish tasks.

Synonyms:

- diligent
- sedulous
- assiduous

528. Informverb:

- give form or character to something or someone

Her upbringing in a musical family informs her unique approach to composing songs.

Synonyms:

- characterize
- imbue
- infuse

529. Irksomeadjective:

- causing annoyance or irritation

The constant noise from the construction site was irksome to the residents.

Synonyms:

- vexing
- exasperating
- grating

530. Manacleverb:

- (used figuratively) restrain, limit, or secure something

Fear of failure can manacle your creativity.

Synonyms:

- stifle
- impede
- hamper

531. Modestadjective:

- unassuming about one's abilities or not boastful

Despite his achievements, he remained a modest individual.

Synonyms:

- self-effacing
- humble
- diffident

adjective:

- limited in quantity or amount

John was able to live on a modest income because of his inexpensive habits.

Synonyms:

- tolerable
- unexceptional
- scanty

532. Noxiousadjective:

- harmful; injurious

They were advised to stay indoors due to the noxious fumes.

Synonyms:

- virulent
- pernicious
- vile

533. Pernicious

adjective:

- causing harm in a subtle way; deadly

The spread of misinformation has a pernicious effect on society.

Synonyms:

- injurious
- detrimental
- deleterious

534. Predicament

noun:

- a challenging or awkward situation

The sudden rainstorm left us in a predicament, as we had no umbrella.

Synonyms:

- plight
- quandary
- pickle

535. Proficient

adjective:

- good at something; skilled

With years of practice, she became proficient in the violin.

Synonyms:

- seasoned
- adroit
- dexterous

536. Prolix

adjective:

- using an excessive amount of words; long-winded

The speaker's prolix explanation was tiresome for the audience.

Synonyms:

- protracted
- verbose
- ponderous

537. Scorn

verb:

- express strong disapproval or contempt for

She scorned his advances and walked away confidently.

Synonyms:

- deride
- disdain
- disparage

noun:

- a feeling or display of contempt or disdain

He looked at the broken toy with scorn, disappointed in its quality.

Synonyms:

- derision
- mockery
- scoffing

538. Subordinate

adjective:

- having a lower rank; less important

The assistant manager is subordinate to the general manager.

Synonyms:

- inferior
- peripheral
- ancillary

verb:

- treat as of less value or importance

The company chose to subordinate other projects to prioritize the new launch.

Synonyms:

- relegate
- devalue
- marginalize

noun:

- a person who is under or less important than another

The manager gave instructions to her subordinates.

Synonyms:

- deputy
- adjutant
- underling

539. Unseemlyadjective:

- not proper or in good taste

He made an unseemly joke during the formal event.

Synonyms:

- indecorous
- unbecoming
- coarse

540. Veritableadjective:

- (used to emphasize something) true; genuine

The forest was a veritable paradise for nature lovers.

Synonyms:

- legitimate
- undeniable
- indisputable

Group 19541. Acolyte*noun:

- a person who assists or follows another person or cause

James maintained power in the organization through his acolytes.

Synonyms:

- lackey
- disciple
- minion

542. Anointverb:

- appoint or designate for a particular role or purpose

He was anointed as the next CEO of the company.

Synonyms:

- ordain
- install
- crown

543. Baseadjective:

- lacking principles; morally wrong

Using someone's vulnerability for personal gain is a base act.

Synonyms:

- sordid
- wicked
- iniquitous

544. Coercionnoun:

- the act of persuading or forcing someone to do something using threats or violence

The confession was extracted through coercion and is not valid.

Synonyms:

- oppression
- duress
- compulsion

545. Coinverb:

- invent or devise a new word or phrase

She coined the term "webinar" for online seminars.

Synonyms:

- conceive of
- originate
- formulate

546. Cunning

adjective:

- showing skill in achieving one's ends through deceit or evasion

The fox is often portrayed as a cunning animal in fables.

Synonyms:

- devious
- guileful
- crafty

547. Discomfit

verb:

- make someone feel uneasy or embarrassed

The unexpected question seemed to discomfit the speaker.

Synonyms:

- discompose
- fluster
- agitate

548. Dissent

verb:

- hold or express an opinion that varies from a prevailing or official position

Several members dissented from the majority decision.

Synonyms:

- demur
- diverge
- repudiate

noun:

- difference of opinion or disagreement

There was a lot of dissent about the new policy among employees.

Synonyms:

- dispute
- defiance
- friction

549. Distill

verb:

- extract the most important information from something

The notes were distilled from a much longer report.

Synonyms:

- glean
- consolidate
- synthesize

550. Dubious

adjective:

- (of a person's feeling) suspicious of

John was dubious that a "speed-reader" could truly understand the content of a book.

Synonyms:

- doubtful
- unresolved
- skeptical

adjective:

- (of a thing or concept) not to be relied upon

The origins of the artifact remain dubious.

Synonyms:

- suspect
- unreliable
- indeterminate

551. Ebullient

adjective:

- cheerful and joyful

The ebullient child was always ready to play.

Synonyms:

- buoyant
- exuberant
- jaunty

552. Facetious

adjective:

- treating serious issues with inappropriate humor

His facetious remarks were not well-received at the funeral.

Synonyms:

- flippant
- glib
- waggish

553. Fallible

adjective:

- capable of making an error

As humans, we are all fallible and make mistakes.

Synonyms:

- errant
- flawed
- error-prone

554. Florid

adjective:

- excessively complicated; including too many details

The author's florid prose did not appeal to minimalist readers.

Synonyms:

- ornate
- embellished
- flamboyant

555. Gawky

adjective:

- awkward or clumsy

The gawky teenager eventually grew into a graceful adult.

Synonyms:

- ungainly
- bumbling
- graceless

556. Inveigle

verb:

- persuade someone to do something using flattery or deception

She managed to inveigle him into doing her work for her.

Synonyms:

- coax
- wheedle
- cajole

557. Jettison

verb:

- abandon or discard (something that is no longer needed)

The crew jettisoned excess cargo to lighten the aircraft.

Synonyms:

- cast aside
- dispose of
- relinquish

558. Mendacity

noun:

- dishonesty

His mendacity cost him the trust of his friends.

Synonyms:

- insincerity
- deceit
- dissembling

559. Munificent

adjective:

- more generous than is usual or necessary

The munificent donation allowed the hospital to build a new wing.

Synonyms:

- beneficent
- philanthropic
- bountiful

560. Naive

adjective:

- showing a lack of experience or judgment

Her naive assumption was that everyone would play fair.

Synonyms:

- callow
- gullible
- ingenuous

561. Noble

adjective:

- having high moral qualities or principles

He made the noble decision to donate all his winnings to charity.

Synonyms:

- virtuous
- upright
- righteous

562. Parochial

adjective:

- having a limited perspective; narrow-minded

The curriculum was criticized for its parochial viewpoint.

Synonyms:

- myopic
- insular
- provincial

563. Pedestrian

adjective:

- lacking imagination or excitement; ordinary

Critics described the play as pedestrian and uninspiring.

Synonyms:

- dull
- plodding
- tedious

564. Prevaricate

verb:

- evade or dodge the truth by being evasive

He would always prevaricate when asked about his past.

Synonyms:

- equivocate
- waver
- fence

565. Prime

verb:

- prepare something for use or action

The pump needs to be primed before it will work.

Synonyms:

- ready
- equip
- gear up

adjective:

- of primary importance; major

Her prime worry is that we're overbudget.

Synonyms:

- chief
- key
- principal

566. Radical

adjective:

- far-reaching; major

The company is undergoing radical changes.

Synonyms:

- thorough
- absolute
- utter

noun:

- a person advocating thorough or complete social or political reform

The radicals were demanding a complete overhaul of the system.

Synonyms:

- revolutionary
- leftist
- progressive

567. Recrudescence

adjective:

- breaking out again; reviving

There are fears of a recrudescence epidemic.

Synonyms:

- resurgent
- renewed
- rekindled

568. Temporal

adjective:

- relating to time

As we grow older, our memories of temporal events might become hazier.

Synonyms:

- temporary
- transitory
- impermanent

adjective:

- relating to worldly rather than spiritual matters

While the church's influence was strong in many aspects of society, it had no power in the temporal affairs of the local government.

Synonyms:

- secular
- profane
- corporeal

569. Transitory

adjective:

- not permanent; temporary

Fame is often a transitory experience.

Synonyms:

- ephemeral
- evanescent
- fleeting

570. Viable

adjective:

- capable of working or succeeding; feasible

With limited funds, only a few options are viable.

Synonyms:

- attainable
- realizable
- practical

Group 20

571. Abreast

adjective:

- informed or familiar about a particular topic

She keeps herself abreast of all the latest technological developments.

Synonyms:

- acquainted with
- plugged into
- in touch with

572. Confound

verb:

- perplex or puzzle someone

The magician's tricks confounded the audience.

Synonyms:

- dumbfound
- stupefy
- unnerve

573. Digression

noun:

- an aside that strays from the main subject

The professor's frequent digressions made it hard to follow the lecture.

Synonyms:

- deviation
- departure
- parenthesis

574. Discrepancy

noun:

- a difference between two or more things that should be the same

There was a large discrepancy between the estimated cost and the actual bill.

Synonyms:

- disparity
- variance
- deviation

575. Duplicitous

adjective:

- deceptive in speech or action

The spy's duplicitous behavior allowed him to gather information from the enemy.

Synonyms:

- deceitful
- treacherous
- dissembling

576. Expedient

adjective:

- affording short-term benefits, often at the expense of the long-term

The politician took expedient steps to secure votes.

Synonyms:

- gainful
- tactical
- opportune

577. Fabricate

verb:

- invent in order to deceive

He fabricated a story about his past.

Synonyms:

- concoct
- contrive
- manufacture

578. Glum

adjective:

- appearing or feeling sad or despondent

She had a glum expression after hearing the sad news.

Synonyms:

- gloomy
- lugubrious
- forlorn

579. Harbinger

noun:

- a person or thing that foreshadows or foretells the coming of someone or something

The early flowers are harbingers of spring.

Synonyms:

- herald
- omen
- premonition

580. Intrinsic

noun:

- belonging to the essential nature of a thing

The intrinsic value of the necklace was in its historical significance, not its gold.

Synonyms:

- inherent
- inborn
- congenital

581. Largesse

noun:

- the trait of being willing to donate money or resources; generosity

The university was built largely due to the largesse of its benefactors.

Synonyms:

- benevolence
- munificence
- magnanimity

582. Libertine

noun:

- someone loose in morals; a pleasure-seeker

The village considered him a libertine due to his unconventional beliefs.

Synonyms:

- philanderer
- rake
- hedonist

583. Malfeasance

noun:

- wrongdoing or misconduct, especially by a public official

The mayor was accused of malfeasance and misuse of city funds.

Synonyms:

- impropriety
- delinquency
- fraud

584. Manifest

verb:

- be revealed; show plainly

He manifested signs of illness.

Synonyms:

- exhibit
- evince
- demonstrate

adjective:

- obvious; not obscure or hidden

The happiness on her face was manifest.

Synonyms:

- patent
- palpable
- blatant

585. Minute

adjective:

- very small

The scientist examined the minute details under a microscope.

Synonyms:

- infinitesimal
- minuscule
- diminutive

586. Modish

adjective:

- in the current fashion or style

Her clothes are always modish and chic.

Synonyms:

- in vogue
- a la mode
- smart

587. Nascent

adjective:

- in the process of emerging, being born, or starting to develop

The nascent idea became a groundbreaking discovery.

Synonyms:

- budding
- embryonic
- incipient

588. Perennial

adjective:

- lasting or remaining active throughout the year, or all the time

His perennial enthusiasm is infectious.

Synonyms:

- everlasting
- perpetual
- ceaseless

589. Pious

adjective:

- deeply devout; exhibiting religious devotion

Her pious nature was evident in her daily actions.

Synonyms:

- reverent
- God-fearing
- dutiful

adjective:

- making a show of one's own virtue

Her pious demeanor masked a deep-seated arrogance towards less fortunate people.

Synonyms:

- sanctimonious
- hypocritical
- holier-than-thou

590. Providential

adjective:

- happening at a fortunate or opportune time

The rain's end just before the parade was providential.

Synonyms:

- auspicious
- propitious
- felicitous

591. Prowess

noun:

- skillfulness and dexterity

The athlete is known for his prowess in track and field.

Synonyms:

- adroitness
- aptitude
- facility

592. Schism

noun:

- a split or separation within a group or organization

The schism between the two factions of the party grew wider.

Synonyms:

- rift
- breach
- rupture

593. Slander

verb:

- baselessly speak ill of someone or something

The rival candidate slandered him throughout the campaign.

Synonyms:

- defame
- libel
- smear

594. Stalwart

adjective:

- determined; staunch

He has been a stalwart supporter of the cause.

Synonyms:

- faithful
- steadfast
- resolute

595. Supplicated

adjective:

- make a humble request; beg or beseech

The followers supplicated for guidance.

Synonyms:

- entreat
- implore
- petition

596. Terse

adjective:

- brief and to the point

His terse reply left everyone surprised by its directness.

Synonyms:

- concise
- brusque
- blunt

597. Tirade

noun:

- a prolonged, vehement speech or criticism

She went on a tirade about the inefficiencies of the system.

Synonyms:

- diatribe
- invective
- harangue

598. Universal

adjective:

- applicable or common to all purposes, conditions, or situations

The desire for peace is universal among nations.

Synonyms:

- omnipresent
- ubiquitous
- pervading

599. Vanquish

verb:

- defeat completely

The champion managed to vanquish all her opponents in the tournament.

Synonyms:

- conquer
- trounce
- quash

600. Woeful

adjective:

- very sad

His woeful tale of lost love moved everyone in the room.

Synonyms:

- dejected
- woebegone
- crestfallen

adjective:

- very bad; awful

His performance in the play, I'm sorry to say, was woeful.

Synonyms:

- dreadful
- atrocious
- deplorable

Group 21

601. Abject

adjective:

- most unfortunate or miserable

The captured soldier displayed abject terror.

Synonyms:

- wretched
- deplorable
- pitiable

602. Amicable

adjective:

- characterized by goodwill and friendliness

The two companies reached an amicable agreement.

Synonyms:

- cordial
- fraternal
- harmonious

603. Animosity

noun:

- strong hostility or resentment

There's a long history of animosity between the two rival groups.

Synonyms:

- enmity
- acrimony
- animus

604. Aver

verb:

- assert with confidence

He avers that he was home at the time of the incident.

Synonyms:

- maintain
- attest
- avow

605. Barrage

noun:

- an overwhelming concentration of something, typically hostile words

The politician faced a barrage of questions from the reporters.

Synonyms:

- bombardment
- deluge
- plethora

606. Cathartic

adjective:

- that which releases emotional tension

Watching a sad movie can be a cathartic experience for some.

Synonyms:

- purgative
- purifying
- exorcising

607. Decipher

verb:

- decode or determine the meaning of something that is difficult to understand

The archaeologist tried to decipher the ancient script.

Synonyms:

- discern
- apprehend
- decode

608. Delusion

noun:

- a belief that is not true or is founded on false premises

The idea that he could fly was just a delusion.

Synonyms:

- misconception
- fallacy
- chimera

609. Dispense

verb:

- issue, distribute, or give out

The machine dispenses drinks and snacks.

Synonyms:

- dole out
- apportion
- disburse

verb:

- do without or get rid of

The new system dispenses with manual checking.

Synonyms:

- waive
- relinquish
- cast aside

610. Eloquent

verb:

- fluently persuasive and articulate

The president gave an eloquent speech about unity.

Synonyms:

- forceful
- silver-tongued
- glib

611. Enthral

verb:

- captivate or charm

The magician's tricks enthralled the audience.

Synonyms:

- enchant
- bewitch
- beguile

612. Eradicate

verb:

- eliminate or destroy completely

The program aims to eradicate childhood diseases.

Synonyms:

- exterminate
- annihilate
- obliterate

613. Fledgling

adjective:

- untried or inexperienced;
emergent or rising

The fledgling company faced many challenges in its early days.

Synonyms:

- budding
- nascent
- incipient

614. Fortitude

noun:

- mental strength and courage that allows one to face challenges

He showed remarkable fortitude during tough times.

Synonyms:

- resilience
- mettle
- steadfastness

615. Fortuitous

adjective:

- happening by chance, especially a lucky chance

The discovery of the manuscript was a fortuitous event.

Synonyms:

- providential
- timely
- serendipitous

616. Goad

verb:

- incite or provoke

She tried to goad him into accepting the challenge.

Synonyms:

- spur
- prod
- rouse

617. Imminent

adjective:

- about to happen soon

They were in imminent danger of being discovered.

Synonyms:

- impending
- at hand
- forthcoming

618. Incontrovertible

adjective:

- undeniable; impossible to dispute

The DNA evidence provided incontrovertible proof of the suspect's presence.

Synonyms:

- incontestable
- irrefutable
- unassailable

619. Itinerant

adjective:

- habitually traveling from place to place

He lived the life of an itinerant salesman.

Synonyms:

- peripatetic
- roving
- nomadic

620. Magnanimousadjective:

- noble and generous in spirit

She was magnanimous in victory, praising her opponent's effort.

Synonyms:

- benevolent
- beneficent
- munificent

621. Meritoriousadjective:

- deserving of merit or commendation; deserving reward

Her actions were deemed meritorious by the entire community.

Synonyms:

- laudable
- estimable
- exemplary

622. Mutinynoun:

- a rebellion against authority; violent strife

The captain faced a mutiny from his crew.

Synonyms:

- insurrection
- revolt
- riot

623. Paradoxicaladjective:

- seemingly contradictory but nonetheless possibly true

It's paradoxical that the medicine makes him feel worse before he gets better.

Synonyms:

- incongruous
- anomalous
- oxymoronic

624. Perseverancenoun:

- persistence in an action or belief despite difficulties or opposition

Her perseverance led her to overcome numerous obstacles in life.

Synonyms:

- tenacity
- resolve
- doggedness

625. Renderverb:

- make or provide

The verdict rendered him guilty.

Synonyms:

- furnish
- proffer
- supply

626. Repertoirenoun:

- the collection of skills, methods, or performances that one is ready to use

The band has a wide repertoire of jazz standards.

Synonyms:

- arsenal
- range
- assortment

627. Resilientadjective:

- able to recover quickly from difficult situations

The city is resilient, bouncing back after every challenge.

Synonyms:

- hardy
- buoyant
- irrepressible

628. Resoluteadjective:

- firmly determined or unwavering

He took a resolute stand against the proposed changes.

Synonyms:

- adamant
- undaunted
- unfaltering

629. Suppleadjective:

- pliant, flexible, or easy to bend

The dancer's supple movements made the challenging routine look effortless.

Synonyms:

- lithe
- nimble
- agile

630. Valornoun:

- strength of mind in the face of danger; bravery

The soldier was awarded for his valor in battle.

Synonyms:

- pluck
- nerve
- mettle

Group 22631. Arresting*adjective:

- attracting attention or striking

The painting had an arresting quality that captivated everyone in the room.

Synonyms:

- conspicuous
- breathtaking
- notable

632. Chastiseverb:

- criticize harshly

The teacher had to chastise the student for repeated disruptions.

Synonyms:

- scold
- reprove
- reprimand

633. Cumbersome (2)adjective:

- large, heavy, slow or complicated

The old computer system was cumbersome and slow.

Synonyms:

- unwieldy
- ungainly
- hefty

Why does this word appear twice?

This vocabulary quiz video opens up with the song Cumbersome by Seven Mary Three, and I thought it would be a shame to have that song at the beginning of the video and NOT have that word in that group.

634. Economynoun:

- frugal or effective use of resources or words

Her economy of words made the speech concise yet impactful.

Synonyms:

- thriftiness
- prudence
- conciseness

635. Elementaryadjective:

- basic and fundamental

The math problems were elementary and easy for the advanced students.

Synonyms:

- rudimentary
- basal
- uncomplicated

636. Embellish

verb:

- make more beautiful or attractive by adding ornamentation

She liked to embellish her diary with colorful stickers.

Synonyms:

- adorn
- varnish
- beautify

verb:

- making something sound or look better than it is in reality

John has a terrible habit of embellishing his stories with improbable details.

Synonyms:

- exaggerate
- embroider
- color

637. Euphoric

verb:

- intensely happy or excited

The athlete felt euphoric after winning the gold medal.

Synonyms:

- elated
- gleeful
- jubilant

638. Exonerate

verb:

- clear from accusation or blame

The evidence served to exonerate the accused man.

Synonyms:

- absolve
- vindicate
- exculpate

639. Extrapolate

verb:

- predict by projecting past experience or data

Based on current trends, we can extrapolate future sales.

Synonyms:

- project
- deduce
- generalize

640. Falter

verb:

- weaken or waver, especially in the face of difficulty; hesitate

Her confidence began to falter when she missed the first question.

Synonyms:

- oscillate
- stumble
- flounder

641. Fervent

adjective:

- exhibiting enthusiasm and zeal

His fervent desire to succeed drove him to work hard every day.

Synonyms:

- impassioned
- ardent
- fervid

642. Foment

verb:

- incite or cause troublesome acts; encourage

The rebel leaders tried to foment a revolution.

Synonyms:

- instigate
- agitate
- prompt

643. Gaffe

noun:

- a foolish and embarrassing error, especially a public one

The actor's gaffe during the live performance became viral.

Synonyms:

- blunder
- slip
- faux pas

644. Heterodox

adjective:

- deviating from what is acceptable or commonly believed

His heterodox views on the subject raised a few eyebrows.

Synonyms:

- unorthodox
- heretical
- iconoclastic

645. Histrionic

adjective:

- overly dramatic or emotional

The child's histrionic response was amusing to the adults.

Synonyms:

- melodramatic
- theatrical
- exaggerated

646. Implicit

adjective:

- suggested though not directly expressed

His trust was implicit, not requiring any proof.

Synonyms:

- implied
- tacit
- insinuated

647. Inviolate

adjective:

- not violated; free from hurt of any kind

The ancient temple remained inviolate for centuries.

Synonyms:

- unmarred
- pristine
- undefiled

648. Liability

noun:

- something or someone that creates a risk or disadvantage

Due to his unpredictable behavior, he's often seen as a team liability.

Synonyms:

- hindrance
- burden
- nuisance

649. Obstinate

adjective:

- stubbornly adhering to an opinion, purpose, or cause

The obstinate child refused to wear his jacket.

Synonyms:

- headstrong
- willful
- intransigent

650. Painstaking

adjective:

- done with careful attention to detail

The artist's painstaking attention to detail was evident in his work.

Synonyms:

- meticulous
- assiduous
- sedulous

651. Phlegmatic

adjective:

- calm and unemotional disposition

Her phlegmatic response was unexpected given the situation.

Synonyms:

- composed
- self-possessed
- stolid

652. Prodigious

adjective:

- impressively large in size or extent

The author's prodigious output included over fifty novels.

Synonyms:

- enormous
- mammoth
- colossal

653. Propensity

noun:

- an inclination or tendency to behave or think in a certain way

He has a propensity for overeating when stressed.

Synonyms:

- proclivity
- disposition
- penchant

654. Qualm

noun:

- a feeling of apprehension or doubt

She had no qualms about borrowing the dress without asking.

Synonyms:

- misgiving
- reservation
- hesitation

655. Reneg

verb:

- fail to fulfill a promise or obligation

He reneged on his promise to help her move.

Synonyms:

- go back on
- retract
- default on

656. Stint

verb:

- supply an insufficient amount of something

As the owner, he's notorious for stinting on the food and facilities.

Synonyms:

- skimp on
- skimp on
- restrict

657. Temper

verb:

- to moderate or neutralize something

You need to temper your expectations, and be more realistic.

Synonyms:

- mitigate
- palliate
- alleviate

658. Tentative

adjective:

- uncertain; subject to future change

They made a tentative agreement to meet next week.

Synonyms:

- provisional
- unsettled
- preliminary

659. Unprecedented

adjective:

- never before seen, done or experienced

The athlete's performance was unprecedented in Olympic history.

Synonyms:

- unparalleled
- unrivaled
- extraordinary

660. Vivacious

adjective:

- lively and animated in spirit

Her vivacious personality lit up the room.

Synonyms:

- bubbly
- ebullient
- buoyant

Group 23

661. Allusive

adjective:

- making indirect references or hints

His allusive remarks during the speech left many intrigued about the hidden meaning.

Synonyms:

- connotative
- implied
- figurative

662. Astute

adjective:

- having the ability to notice and understand things clearly

Her astute observations made her a standout detective.

Synonyms:

- shrewd
- sharp
- acute

663. Commence

verb:

- begin or start

The ceremony will commence at noon.

Synonyms:

- initiate
- set in motion
- embark on

664. Convalescent

adjective:

- recovering from illness or treatment

After the surgery, she spent two weeks in a convalescent state.

Synonyms:

- recuperating
- improving
- on the mend

665. Curb

verb:

- restrict or control

She had to curb her impulse to buy every book she saw.

Synonyms:

- restrain
- deter
- inhibit

666. Decry

verb:

- publicly criticize or condemn

Activists decry the new policy as harmful.

Synonyms:

- denounce
- lambast
- censure

667. Duress

noun:

- compulsion by threat or force

He signed the document under duress.

Synonyms:

- coercion
- intimidation
- threats

668. Evoke

verb:

- bring to mind or produce a reaction

The photograph evoked memories of our childhood.

Synonyms:

- summon
- conjure up
- elicit

669. Fawn

verb:

- display exaggerated affection or flattery, usually to gain favor

He fawned over the director in hopes of getting the lead role.

Synonyms:

- pander to
- dote on
- flatter

670. Fret

verb:

- be constantly or visibly worried or anxious

She began to fret about the upcoming exam.

Synonyms:

- agonize
- grumble
- pine

671. Glib

adjective:

- fluent but insincere and shallow

His glib remarks failed to address the real concerns of the people.

Synonyms:

- slick
- facile
- smooth

672. Headstrong

adjective:

- determined to have one's own way; stubborn

The headstrong child refused to follow instructions.

Synonyms:

- willful
- obstinate
- wayward

673. Intermittent

adjective:

- occurring at irregular intervals; not continuous

The intermittent rain made it hard to plan outdoor activities.

Synonyms:

- sporadic
- fitful
- spasmodic

674. Ire

noun:

- anger or wrath

The decision sparked the ire of the community.

Synonyms:

- exasperation
- chagrin
- spleen

675. Languid

adjective:

- casual and relaxed; slow

The hot weather made everyone feel languid.

Synonyms:

- lethargic
- sluggish
- torpid

adjective:

- weak from disease or weariness

Her languid demeanor revealed the toll the disease had taken on her strength.

Synonyms:

- sickly
- flagging
- debilitated

676. Lull

verb:

- calm or send to sleep, usually with soothing sounds or movements

She would lull the baby to sleep with a gentle song.

Synonyms:

- soothe
- hush
- lullaby

noun:

- a brief pause or delay in activity

There was usually a lull between each class period.

Synonyms:

- respite
- hiatus
- interlude

677. Mettlesome

adjective:

- spirited and brave

The mettlesome horse faced the challenge with energy.

Synonyms:

- hardy
- tenacious
- plucky

678. Mollify

verb:

- calm or reduce the anger or anxiety of someone

He tried to mollify the angry customer with a discount.

Synonyms:

- appease
- pacify
- propitiate

679. Neutralize

verb:

- counteract or cancel the effect of something

The base will neutralize the acid, creating a balanced solution.

Synonyms:

- nullify
- offset
- counterbalance

680. Nonplussed

adjective:

- unsure about what to say or do; confused

He was nonplussed by the sudden change of plans.

Synonyms:

- bewildered
- bemused
- discomposed

681. Precipitous

adjective:

- extremely steep

The hiker was wary of the precipitous drop on one side of the trail.

Synonyms:

- sheer
- abrupt
- sharp

adjective:

- (of an action) done quickly and without care

His precipitous decision to quit left the team in a challenging situation.

Synonyms:

- hasty
- rash
- impetuous

682. Pretentious

adjective:

- attempting to impress by affecting greater importance than is actually possessed

The movie was criticized for being pretentious and lacking substance.

Synonyms:

- affected
- ostentatious
- inflated

683. Profound

adjective:

- (of a person or idea) having deep insight or knowledge

The book offers profound insights into human behavior.

Synonyms:

- weighty
- learned
- abstract

adjective:

- very large or intense

The accident had a profound impact on his outlook on life.

Synonyms:

- extreme
- severe
- acute

684. Propagate

verb:

- spread or promote widely

The organization aims to propagate environmental awareness.

Synonyms:

- disseminate
- promulgate
- broadcast

685. Recourse

noun:

- a source of help or strategies used in a difficult situation

When negotiations failed, they had no recourse but to leave.

Synonyms:

- resort
- expedient
- refuge

686. Refute

verb:

- prove to be wrong or false

She refuted the claims made against her.

Synonyms:

- controvert
- gainsay
- rebut

687. Regress

verb:

- return to a less advanced or former state

After the trauma, he seemed to regress to a childlike state.

Synonyms:

- revert
- lapse
- backslide

688. Repercussions

noun:

- an unintended consequence of an event or action

The financial crash had serious repercussions worldwide.

Synonyms:

- fallout
- reverberation
- aftermath

689. Replenish

verb:

- fill something up again

After the party, we had to replenish our food supplies.

Synonyms:

- recharge
- top up
- restock

690. Vigilant

adjective:

- keeping careful watch for dangers or difficulties

Be vigilant about locking your doors in this neighborhood.

Synonyms:

- circumspect
- heedful
- wary

Group 24

691. Assail

verb:

- attack physically or verbally

The politician was assailed by critics on both sides of the aisle.

Synonyms:

- assault
- censure
- castigate

692. Benevolent

adjective:

- showing kindness or goodwill

Her benevolent nature made her loved by all who knew her.

Synonyms:

- altruistic
- humanitarian
- magnanimous

693. Berate

verb:

- scold or criticize harshly

The coach berated the player for his lack of effort during the game.

Synonyms:

- rebuke
- reprove
- chastise

694. Buoyant

adjective:

- lighthearted and lively; having a cheerful attitude

Her buoyant spirit lifted everyone's mood.

Synonyms:

- bright
- jovial
- jaunty

695. Buttress

verb:

- support or reinforce

The lawyer buttressed his argument with facts.

Synonyms:

- fortify
- prop up
- brace

696. Condone

verb:

- forgive, excuse, or overlook

Society shouldn't condone such behavior.

Synonyms:

- disregard
- pardon
- let slide

697. Contravene

verb:

- go against or violate a rule, law, or convention

The company's actions contravene international law.

Synonyms:

- breach
- infringe
- flout

698. Denounce

verb:

- criticize or speak out against

Activists denounce the new policy as harmful.

Synonyms:

- condemn
- besmirch
- malign

699. Despotic

adjective:

- of a ruler with absolute power; tyrannical

The despotic regime was overthrown by the revolution.

Synonyms:

- autocratic
- dictatorial
- totalitarian

700. Deviate

verb:

- go off course from; stray from some norm

It's risky to deviate from the accepted protocol.

Synonyms:

- diverge
- digress
- veer

701. Disinterested

adjective:

- unbiased

The judge remained disinterested and fair throughout the trial.

Synonyms:

- impartial
- objective
- just

702. Escalate

verb:

- increase or intensify

The situation began to escalate, causing concern among the residents.

Synonyms:

- soar
- mushroom
- be magnified

703. Exorcise

verb:

- drive out (such as an evil spirit or some other thing) from a person, place, or thing

He was finally able to exorcise the haunting memories of her past.

Synonyms:

- cast out
- expel
- cleanse

704. Finicky

adjective:

- fussy or hard to please

She's finicky about her food and only eats organic.

Synonyms:

- fastidious
- overcritical
- exacting

705. Foil

verb:

- prevent (something) from being accomplished

The police managed to foil the robbery.

Synonyms:

- thwart
- impede
- hamper

706. Intertwined

adjective:

- twisted or linked closely together

Their lives were deeply intertwined after years of friendship.

Synonyms:

- entwined
- interwoven
- coiled

707. Inundate

verb:

- flood or overwhelm

After the news broke, the office was inundated with phone calls.

Synonyms:

- overburden
- deluge
- engulf

708. Ironclad

adjective:

- unbreakable or extremely strong

She had an ironclad alibi for the night of the crime.

Synonyms:

- impenetrable
- unquestionable
- inviolable

709. Jeopardize

verb:

- put in danger; threaten

Drinking and driving can jeopardize innocent lives.

Synonyms:

- endanger
- menace
- compromise

710. Mercurial

adjective:

- having a volatile character; fickle

He was known for his mercurial temperament.

Synonyms:

- capricious
- temperamental
- impulsive

711. Oblivious

adjective:

- not aware of or not noticing something

He was completely oblivious to the danger ahead.

Synonyms:

- heedless
- ignorant
- unsuspecting

712. Perpetrate

verb:

- commit something (often a crime); carry out

The crimes were perpetrated by a masked individual.

Synonyms:

- execute
- pull off
- effectuate

713. Plaintive

adjective:

- expressing sorrow or melancholy

The song had a plaintive melody that touched everyone's hearts.

Synonyms:

- mournful
- doleful
- woeful

714. Poignant

adjective:

- emotionally moving

The movie's poignant ending left many in tears.

Synonyms:

- touching
- affecting
- heart-rending

715. Quiescent

adjective:

- being at rest; inactive or quiet

The volcano remains quiescent for now.

Synonyms:

- latent
- inert
- in abeyance

716. Reiterate

verb:

- say or do again, multiple times

I must reiterate the importance of this task.

Synonyms:

- restate
- belabor
- recapitulate

717. Subside

verb:

- become lower; decrease; become less intense

The storm began to subside after a few hours.

Synonyms:

- abate
- ebb
- recede

718. Subsume

verb:

- include or contain something else

Most of these phenomena can be subsumed under two broad categories.

Synonyms:

- incorporate
- encompass
- consolidate

719. Surmount

verb:

- overcome something, typically a challenge

She had to surmount numerous challenges to achieve her goal.

Synonyms:

- prevail over
- clear
- conquer

720. Tangential

adjective:

- only superficially relevant

Let's not go off on tangential issues during the meeting.

Synonyms:

- peripheral
- incidental
- extraneous

Group 25

721. Adept

adjective:

- well skilled; completely versed

She is adept at playing the violin.

Synonyms:

- deft
- proficient
- talented

722. Adverse

adjective:

- unfavorable or opposed to one's interests or desire

The project faced adverse weather conditions.

Synonyms:

- disadvantageous
- unpropitious
- deleterious

723. Appropriate

verb:

- take something forcefully, usually without the owner's agreement

The company was accused of appropriating indigenous designs.

Synonyms:

- seize
- assume
- commandeer

adjective:

- suitable or fit for a situation

The dress was appropriate for the formal evening gala event.

Synonyms:

- proper
- apt
- pertinent

724. Archetype

noun:

- a typical example of something

The hero is an archetype often found in literature.

Synonyms:

- standard
- representative
- paradigm

725. Articulate

adjective:

- able to express ideas or feelings fluently and clearly

She is very articulate, she can express her thoughts very well.

Synonyms:

- eloquent
- coherent
- well-spoken

726. Auspicious

adjective:

- favorable and indicative of good luck

It was an auspicious start to the journey.

Synonyms:

- opportune
- propitious
- providential

727. Bereft

adjective:

- lacking or mourning something or someone

She felt bereft of hope.

Synonyms:

- deprived of
- wanting
- denuded of

728. Captious

adjective:

- fault-finding (especially petty ones)

The reviewer was captious and nitpicky.

Synonyms:

- nitpicking
- caviling
- carping

729. Conclusive

adjective:

- without doubt

The evidence was conclusive.

Synonyms:

- incontrovertible
- irrefutable
- decisive

730. Conspire

verb:

- secretly work together for something bad

They conspired to steal the artwork.

Synonyms:

- collude
- intrigue
- plot

731. Delineate

verb:

- describe or depict precisely; outline

The report delineates the steps to be taken.

Synonyms:

- portray
- outline
- specify

732. Disentangle

verb:

- free from entanglement or confusion; make clear

He tried to disentangle the truth from the lies.

Synonyms:

- extricate
- extract
- unravel

733. Exhort

verb:

- strongly persuade, encourage, or urge

The speaker exhorted the audience to take action.

Synonyms:

- adjure
- enjoin
- pressure

734. Frailty

noun:

- quality or state of being weak; weakness

The frailty of the bridge was evident.

Synonyms:

- feebleness
- incapacity
- fragility

735. Grievance

noun:

- an issue or problem

The workers had several grievances.

Synonyms:

- complaint
- objection
- protest

736. Harangue

noun:

- a long angry rant

The politician delivered a passionate harangue to his supporters.

Synonyms:

- diatribe
- tirade
- broadside

737. Ploy

noun:

- a strategy or tactic used to gain an advantage

The discount was just a marketing ploy.

Synonyms:

- ruse
- scheme
- gambit

738. Poise

noun:

- a state of balance, equilibrium or stability

She handled the situation with great poise.

Synonyms:

- phlegm
- equanimity
- composure

739. Pomposity

noun:

- the quality of being pompous; self-importance

His speech was filled with pomposity.

Synonyms:

- imperiousness
- bombast
- grandiosity

740. Proxy

noun:

- a substitute (usually for a person) that is compatible

Voting by proxy is allowed.

Synonyms:

- surrogate
- delegate
- agent

741. Relent

verb:

- abandon a harsh intention or attitude by giving in

The stubborn child finally relented and agreed to do his chores.

Synonyms:

- yield
- capitulate
- accede

verb:

- reduce in intensity

The storm finally relented.

Synonyms:

- abate
- subside
- ease off

742. Rhetoric

noun:

- persuasive speech or writing

The president's rhetoric appealed to many.

Synonyms:

- eloquence
- oratory
- diction

743. Rigor

noun:

- thoroughness and strictness

The rigor of the testing process was intense.

Synonyms:

- comprehensive
- demanding
- harsh

744. Sparse

adjective

- not dense and meager; having widely spaced intervals

Sparse vegetation is found in the desert due to the harsh conditions.

Synonyms:

- infrequent
- scant
- scarce

745. Steadfast

adjective:

- fixed or unchanging; steady

Her steadfast loyalty was commendable.

Synonyms:

- resolute
- staunch
- dedicated

746. Suspect

adjective:

- viewed with suspicion

His reasons for being late were suspect.

Synonyms:

- dubious
- skeptical
- questionable

747. Tedious

adjective:

- boring and slow, without variety

The lecture was tedious and boring.

Synonyms:

- monotonous
- humdrum
- mundane

748. Vitality

noun:

- strength and energy

The team played with great vitality.

Synonyms:

- vivacity
- verve
- exuberance

749. Whimsical

adjective:

- playful or silly

The whimsical decorations added a touch of playfulness to the room.

Synonyms:

- fanciful
- quirky
- waggish

adjective:

- unpredictable

Her whimsical decisions often surprised everyone at the team meetings.

Synonyms:

- capricious
- volatile
- impulsive

750. Yield

verb:

- produce or generate a result, product, or amount

Fertile soil yields abundant crops throughout the bountiful spring and summer.

Synonyms:

- supply
- furnish
- bestow

verb:

- give up or surrender

Despite his initial resistance, he eventually yielded to their requests.

Synonyms:

- relent
- submit
- capitulate

Group 26

751. Apprehension

noun:

- fearful anticipation or worry

The dark clouds caused apprehension among the villagers.

Synonyms:

- nervousness
- unease
- trepidation

752. Ardent

adjective:

- full of passion and enthusiasm

She's an ardent supporter of environmental causes.

Synonyms:

- zealous
- fervent
- impassioned

753. Axiomatic

adjective:

- evident without proof or argument; self-evident

It's axiomatic that the sun rises in the east.

Synonyms:

- apodictic
- unquestionable
- manifest

754. Cease

verb

- to stop happening or continuing

The noise ceased as soon as the manager entered the room.

Synonyms:

- halt
- terminate
- abate

755. Conducive

adjective:

- helping to bring about or promote a particular outcome

The peaceful environment was conducive to studying.

Synonyms:

- favorable
- propitious
- beneficial

756. Corporeal

adjective:

- associated with the physical body, not the spirit or soul

The soul is separate from our corporeal existence.

Synonyms:

- bodily
- fleshly
- somatic

757. Doctrinaire

adjective:

- rigidly sticking to theoretical ideas, rather than being practical

His doctrinaire approach didn't leave room for alternative perspectives.

Synonyms:

- dogmatic
- opinionated
- fanatical

758. Eclectic

adjective:

- derived from a diverse range of sources or styles

His decorating style is eclectic, blending antique and modern elements.

Synonyms:

- assorted
- disparate
- miscellaneous

759. Equanimity

noun:

- evenness of mind, especially under stress

She handled the crisis with remarkable equanimity.

Synonyms:

- poise
- serenity
- composure

760. Exorbitant

adjective:

- going far beyond what is fair, reasonable, or expected

They were charged exorbitant prices for a simple meal.

Synonyms:

- extortionate
- outrageous
- inflated

761. Fickle

adjective:

- quick to change one's opinion or allegiance

The fickle winds of fashion can make today's trend obsolete tomorrow.

Synonyms:

- capricious
- mercurial
- volatile

762. Figurative

adjective:

- symbolic rather than literal

He used the storm as a figurative representation of his internal turmoil.

Synonyms:

- metaphorical
- allegorical
- representative

763. Flustered

adjective:

- agitated or confused

He became flustered when confronted with unexpected questions.

Synonyms:

- befuddled
- perplexed
- baffled

764. Gullible

adjective:

- easily deceived or tricked

Scammers often prey on gullible individuals.

Synonyms:

- naive
- credulous
- unwary

765. Idiosyncratic

adjective:

- peculiar to an individual or group; unique

She has idiosyncratic mannerisms that make her easily recognizable.

Synonyms:

- eccentric
- quirky
- characteristic

766. Incidental

adjective:

- secondary or non-essential part of something

Incidental expenses were added to the main bill.

Synonyms:

- auxiliary
- peripheral
- subordinate

767. Ingrained

adjective:

- deeply rooted or established

It's an ingrained habit that's hard to break.

Synonyms:

- entrenched
- inveterate
- intrinsic

768. Insolent

adjective:

- boldly disrespectful or rude

His insolent attitude towards the teacher got him in trouble.

Synonyms:

- impertinent
- brazen
- impudent

769. Lampoon

verb:

- satirize or poke fun at

He used his comic strip to lampoon the school's rules.

Synonyms:

- ridicule
- mock
- deride

770. Lavish

adjective:

- extravagant, luxurious, or abundant

She wore a lavish gown to the ball.

Synonyms:

- opulent
- sumptuous
- elaborate

verb:

- give out extremely generously

Parents often lavish love on their children without expecting return.

Synonyms:

- expend
- squander
- splurge

771. Lugubrious

adjective:

- appearing sad or gloomy

The movie had a lugubrious tone that left many in tears.

Synonyms:

- mournful
- woeful
- dismal

772. Macabre

adjective:

- having a quality of horror or grimness

The play had a macabre sense of humor.

Synonyms:

- morbid
- lurid
- ghastly

773. Morose

adjective:

- sullen and gloomy

He was morose after hearing the bad news.

Synonyms:

- sulky
- glum
- peevish

774. Officious

adjective:

- overbearingly assertive, especially in offering unwanted advice or help

Her officious attitude constantly pushed unwanted advice on everyone nearby.

Synonyms:

- pushy
- meddling
- bumptious

775. Ramification

noun:

- a consequence or resulting action of a previous event

The ramification of the decision was felt years later.

Synonyms:

- aftermath
- fallout
- byproduct

776. Serene

adjective:

- calm, quiet, and peaceful

The serene landscape was a perfect place to relax.

Synonyms:

- restful
- placid
- tranquil

777. Supplant

verb:

- replace or take the place of

The new system will supplant the old method.

Synonyms:

- displace
- supersede
- usurp

778. Tacit

adjective:

- implied without being directly expressed

There was a tacit agreement that he would pay for dinner.

Synonyms:

- implicit
- insinuated
- deducible

779. Transcend

verb:

- pass beyond the limits of something

The music seemed to transcend cultural boundaries.

Synonyms:

- surpass
- outpace
- transgress

780. Treatise

noun:

- a written work that provides a systematic and detailed examination of a subject

He wrote a treatise on environmental conservation.

Synonyms:

- disquisition
- exposition
- discourse

Group 27

781. Antagonize

verb:

- act in opposition to or provoke hostility from

His confrontational manner tended to antagonize his colleagues.

Synonyms:

- rile
- incite
- foment

782. Barren

adjective:

- incapable of producing offspring or fruit; unproductive

The desert is a barren landscape with little vegetation.

Synonyms:

- infertile
- sterile
- desolate

783. Bombastic

adjective:

- high-sounding but with little meaning; overfilled

The politician's speech was bombastic, full of lofty words but lacking substance.

Synonyms:

- inflated
- turgid
- pretentious

784. Cajole

verb:

- persuade through flattery or gentle urging

She managed to cajole him into doing his homework.

Synonyms:

- lure
- wheedle
- coax

785. Chary

adjective:

- being wary or cautiously reluctant

She was chary of investing in the risky venture.

Synonyms:

- skeptical
- dubious
- heedful

786. Curmudgeon

noun:

- an ill-tempered person full of stubborn opinions

The old curmudgeon grumbled daily, resisting the village's progressive changes.

Synonyms:

- crank
- sourpuss
- crosspatch

787. Dirge

noun:

- a mournful song, especially for a funeral or mourning

The choir sang a dirge to honor the deceased.

Synonyms:

- requiem
- lament
- elegy

788. Estimable

adjective:

- deserving of respect or admiration

His estimable talents were recognized by all.

Synonyms:

- venerable
- laudable
- commendable

789. Euphemism

noun:

- a mild or polite term used to substitute a harsh or offensive one

"Passed away" is a euphemism for "died."

Synonyms:

- softening
- circumlocution
- underplaying

790. Excoriate

verb:

- criticize strongly; condemn

The film was excoriated by critics for its shallow plot.

Synonyms:

- censure
- denounce
- blast

791. Exigent

adjective:

- requiring immediate action or aid; urgent

The patient's condition was exigent, demanding instant medical attention.

Synonyms:

- pressing
- dire
- acute

792. Haughty

adjective:

- exhibiting arrogant and condescending pride

She gave him a haughty look, dismissing his suggestion.

Synonyms:

- disdainful
- lofty
- scornful

793. Heady

adjective:

- intoxicating or stupefying

The success brought a heady feeling of invincibility.

Synonyms:

- potent
- inebriate
- vinous

794. Imperturbable

adjective:

- not easily annoyed, upset, or excited; calm

Even during the crisis, she remained imperturbable.

Synonyms:

- unruffled
- serene
- composed

795. Implacable

adjective:

- not able to be appeased

Her anger towards the betrayal was implacable.

Synonyms:

- adamant
- unsparing
- relentless

796. Lambaste

verb:

- scold, reprimand, or criticize harshly

The coach lambasted the team for their poor performance.

Synonyms:

- condemn
- berate
- upbraid

797. Miscreant

noun:

- one who has behaved badly, or illegally

The security caught the miscreant trying to steal.

Synonyms:

- culprit
- malefactor
- delinquent

798. Peccadillo

noun:

- a small flaw or sin

Though a peccadillo in some eyes, he couldn't overlook her tardiness.

Synonyms:

- delinquency
- misdeed
- misdemeanor

799. Philistine

noun:

- a person who is ignorant or uneducated

The art community considered him a philistine because of his disdain for modern art.

Synonyms:

- materialist
- lowbrow
- boor

800. Relegate

verb:

- consign to a place or position of insignificance, lower rank, or inferiority

The old software was relegated to the back shelf.

Synonyms:

- demote
- disrate
- banish

801. Repugnant

adjective:

- offensive or repulsive; arousing disgust or aversion

The idea of cheating was repugnant to her.

Synonyms:

- repellent
- abhorrent
- loathsome

802. Sentimental

adjective:

- characterized by feelings or nostalgia

He kept the old letters for sentimental reasons.

Synonyms:

- tender
- soppy
- mawkish

803. Squander

verb:

- spend profusely or recklessly
- He squandered all his earnings on luxury items.*

Synonyms:

- lavish
- splurge
- dissipate

804. Swindle

verb:

- obtain money by fraudulent or deceitful methods

The con artist tried to swindle her out of her savings.

Synonyms:

- dupe
- hoax
- bamboozle

805. Tangible

adjective:

- capable of being touched; real or actual

The benefits of the project were tangible and widely appreciated.

Synonyms:

- tactile
- palpable
- perceptible

806. Turpitude

noun:

- wickedness or moral corruption

The judge condemned the criminal's life of turpitude.

Synonyms:

- depravity
- vice
- villainy

807. Unalloyed

adjective:

- pure; without any adulterations

His happiness was unalloyed when he heard the good news.

Synonyms:

- genuine
- authentic
- pristine

808. Undercut

verb:

- undermine; weaken

The store undercuts its competitors to attract more customers.

Synonyms:

- diminish
- debilitate
- sabotage

809. Wheedle

verb:

- attempt to persuade by flattery

She tried to wheedle her dad into buying her a new phone.

Synonyms:

- coax
- cajole
- lure

810. Xenophobic

adjective:

- showing a fear or hatred of strangers or foreigners

His xenophobic attitudes were not appreciated in the multicultural city.

Synonyms:

- prejudiced
- jingoistic
- bigoted

Group 28

811. Abeyance

noun:

- suspension; temporary suppression

The project was held in abeyance until more funds became available.

Synonyms:

- remission
- moratorium
- dormancy

812. Abstract

adjective:

- present in thought or concept but lacking physical existence

Justice is an abstract concept.

Synonyms:

- conceptual
- hypothetical
- ideational

verb:

- removing something or considering something separate

She managed to abstract the main idea from the lengthy article.

Synonyms:

- extricate
- disengage
- segregate

813. Affront

noun:

- an open or intentional offense, slight, or insult

He took his friend's comment as an affront to his character.

Synonyms:

- snub
- slur
- malign

814. Agitate

verb:

- make someone disturbed or excited

The thought of speaking in public really agitates her.

Synonyms:

- ruffle
- incite
- faze

815. August

adjective:

- noble and respected; awe-inspiring

The august institution has stood for centuries as a beacon of knowledge.

Synonyms:

- venerable
- eminent
- majestic

816. Burnish

verb:

- improve or enhance

She worked hard to burnish her skills, ensuring she was recognized as a top expert in her field.

Synonyms:

- polish
- refine
- ameliorate

817. Coy

adjective:

- being bashful, shy, or retiring

She gave him a coy smile across the room.

Synonyms:

- demure
- reticent
- timid

818. Deprecate

verb:

• belittle or express disapproval of Environmentalists deprecate the use of plastic due to its long decomposition rate.

Synonyms:

- deplore
- abhor
- denounce

819. Disdain

noun:

• the state of being despised; shame
He looked at the broken watch with disdain, wondering why anyone would keep it.

Synonyms:

- contempt
- scorn
- hauteur

820. Disperse

verb:

• scatter in different directions
The smoke began to disperse after the fire was extinguished.

Synonyms:

- disseminate
- diffuse
- sprinkle

821. Distend

verb:

- extend or expand, as from internal pressure; swell

The balloon began to distend as it was filled with air.

Synonyms:

- bulge
- dilate
- bloat

822. Endemic

adjective:

- regularly found and restricted to a particular area or population

The koala is endemic to certain parts of Australia, and cannot be found in the wild elsewhere.

Synonyms:

- native
- indigenous
- aboriginal

823. Enmity

noun:

- the quality of being an enemy; hostility

There was enmity between the two rival gangs.

Synonyms:

- acrimony
- animus
- loathing

824. Gauche

adjective:

- awkward or lacking in social graces

His gauche comment about her dress made the evening uncomfortable.

Synonyms:

- inelegant
- gawky
- unrefined

825. Hysterical

adjective:

- wildly emotional or exaggerated in reaction

Her hysterical laughter caught everyone's attention.

Synonyms:

- delirious
- feverish
- agitated

826. Impudent

adjective:

- not showing due respect; bold-faced, impertinent

The student's impudent behavior got him sent to the principal's office.

Synonyms:

- brazen
- insolent
- flippant

827. Inchoate

adjective:

- recently started but not fully formed yet

Their plans for the business were still inchoate.

Synonyms:

- nascent
- incipient
- preliminary

828. Penchant

noun:

- taste, liking, or inclination

She has a penchant for classical music.

Synonyms:

- appetite
- fondness
- predilection

829. Quandary

noun:

- a dilemma; a difficult decision or situation

Choosing between the two job offers left her in a quandary.

Synonyms:

- plight
- conundrum
- predicament

830. Quarantine

verb:

- place into isolation to prevent the spread of any contagious disease

Authorities quickly quarantined the town to contain the unknown virus.

Synonyms:

- sequester
- seclude
- segregate

831. Quash

verb:

- void or suppress

The judge decided to quash the case due to a lack of evidence.

Synonyms:

- rescind
- quell
- subdue

832. Quibble

verb:

- complain or argue in a trivial or petty manner

Let's not quibble over such minor details.

Synonyms:

- nitpick
- pettifog
- cavil

833. Ravage

verb:

- devastate, destroy, or lay waste to something

The hurricane ravaged the coastal town.

Synonyms:

- raze
- plunder
- havoc

834. Recant

verb:

- withdraw or repudiate a statement or opinion formerly expressed, especially formally and publicly

Under pressure, he recanted his statement.

Synonyms:

- abjure
- disown
- renege

835. Redoubtable

adjective:

- eliciting respect or fear; notably formidable

The chess champion was a redoubtable adversary.

Synonyms:

- imposing
- awe-inspiring
- daunting

836. Retiring

adjective:

- introverted and shy; liking privacy
- Despite being a brilliant scientist, she was a retiring individual who shunned the limelight.*

Synonyms:

- bashful
- reclusive
- timorous

837. Shrill

adjective:

- high-pitched and piercing in sound quality

The shrill ring of the telephone startled him.

Synonyms:

- shrieking
- strident
- squawky

838. Sophistry

noun:

- plausible yet fallacious argumentations or reasoning

The politician's speech was pure sophistry, lacking genuine solutions.

Synonyms:

- casuistry
- fallacy
- paralogism

839. Substantiate

verb:

- verify something by supplying evidence

She was able to substantiate her claim with documents.

Synonyms:

- endorse
- corroborate
- validate

840. Wily

adjective:

- sly, cunning, full of tricks

The wily fox managed to escape the trap every time.

Synonyms:

- cunning
- shrewd
- crafty

Group 29

841. Abscond

verb:

- leave hurriedly and secretly, typically to avoid capture

After committing the crime, the thief decided to abscond before the police arrived.

Synonyms:

- flee
- bolt
- decamp

842. Apogee

noun:

- the peak or highest point of something

The athlete's gold medal win was the apogee of her years of training.

Synonyms:

- zenith
- apex
- acme

843. Aspersions

noun:

- a critical or damaging remark or criticism

She was hurt by the aspersions cast on her professionalism.

Synonyms:

- vilification
- smear
- defamation

844. Bawdy

adjective:

- humorously dealing with sexual subjects; risqué in a comedic way

The play was filled with bawdy jokes that made some viewers blush.

Synonyms:

- ribald
- lewd
- titillating

845. Chagrin

noun:

- a feeling of frustration, annoyance, or anger

To her chagrin, she realized she had been wearing mismatched shoes all day.

Synonyms:

- pique
- vexation
- resentment

846. Collude

verb:

- secretly cooperate for deceitful or fraudulent purposes

The two companies were accused of colluding to raise prices.

Synonyms:

- connive
- conspire
- scheme

847. Commiserate

verb:

- express sympathy or sorrow with someone who has experienced misfortune

She commiserated with her friend after the loss of her job.

Synonyms:

- comfort
- console
- solace

848. Conflagration

noun:

- a large, destructive fire

A conflagration in the town's center caused widespread damage.

Synonyms:

- inferno
- blaze
- firestorm

849. Contretemps

noun:

- a small disagreement or mishap

A brief contretemps over the bill was resolved when she agreed to pay.

Synonyms:

- dissension
- quarrel
- squabble

850. Conviction

noun:

- a strong belief or principle held with confidence

Her conviction in justice inspired many to seek change passionately.

Synonyms:

- stance
- tenet
- credo

851. Croon

verb:

- sing softly, typically in a sentimental manner

Under the moonlight, he'd croon love ballads.

Synonyms:

- serenade
- warble
- hum

852. Depose

verb:

- forcibly remove someone from office or power

A plan was in place to depose the corrupt leader.

Synonyms:

- axe
- oust
- expel

853. Detente

noun:

- a period of improved relations between countries, especially when tensions have been high

The two rival nations entered a detente after the peace talks.

Synonyms:

- thawing
- pacification
- conciliation

854. Dowdy

adjective:

- lacking style or elegance; out of fashion

His clothes were considered dowdy by modern standards.

Synonyms:

- shabby
- frumpy
- frumpish

855. Echelon

noun:

- a level or tier within a system or organization

As a new recruit, he was in the lowest echelon of the company.

Synonyms:

- rank
- rung
- stratum

856. Ennui

noun:

- a feeling of boredom and dissatisfaction due to a lack of excitement or interest

His days were filled with ennui, as his routine never varied.

Synonyms:

- tedium
- languor
- lethargy

857. Expatriate

verb:

- talk or write in great detail about a topic

The professor was known to expatriate on any subject he found interesting.

Synonyms:

- expound
- embellish
- dilate on

858. Fraught

adjective:

- filled with tension, stress, or negative emotions

The meeting was fraught with disagreements and shouting matches.

Synonyms:

- strained
- contentious
- volatile

859. Fulcrum

noun:

- the main factor or element that plays a pivotal role in a situation

Trust is the fulcrum of their strong, enduring relationship together.

Synonyms:

- crux
- linchpin
- keystone

860. Imbroglia

noun:

- a complex and confusing situation, often of a messy or controversial nature

The political scandal turned into an imbroglia that lasted for months.

Synonyms:

- dilemma
- muddle
- quandary

861. Jocund

adjective:

- merry and in high spirits; exhibiting happiness

The jocund melody brightened up the room.

Synonyms:

- genial
- exuberant
- buoyant

862. Languish

verb:

- become weak or feeble, often from neglect or lack of attention

Without water, the plants began to languish.

Synonyms:

- deteriorate
- wane
- wither

verb:

- experience prolonged suffering or distress

He languished in the remote town, longing for the bustling city life he once knew.

Synonyms:

- atrophy
- molder
- decay

863. Nadir

noun:

- the absolute lowest point or worst moment

Losing his job marked the nadir of his career.

Synonyms:

- depths
- rock bottom
- abyss

864. Nimble

adjective:

- quick and agile in movement or thinking

The nimble cat easily jumped from one rooftop to the next.

Synonyms:

- lithe
- deft
- adroit

865. Ominous

adjective:

- indicating that something unfavorable is likely to happen

Dark clouds on the horizon gave an ominous sign of the coming storm.

Synonyms:

- inauspicious
- menacing
- sinister

866. Outlandish

adjective:

- strange, unusual, or bizarre in appearance or style

His outfit was outlandish, with bright colors and mismatched patterns.

Synonyms:

- eccentric
- quirky
- anomalous

867. Propitious

adjective:

- favorable; advantageous

The sunny weather was propitious for our picnic.

Synonyms:

- providential
- auspicious
- opportune

868. Prurient

adjective:

- displaying or prompting an undue interest in sexual matters

The film was criticized for its prurient scenes.

Synonyms:

- salacious
- lustful
- lascivious

869. Sadistic

adjective:

- taking pleasure in causing pain or suffering to others

The villain's sadistic tendencies made the movie quite intense.

Synonyms:

- fiendish
- ruthless
- bestial

870. Zenith

noun:

- the point at which something attains its maximum strength or power

The festival is at its zenith when thousands gather for the grand parade.

Synonyms:

- apogee
- acme
- climax

Group 30

871. Aberrant

adjective:

- deviating from what is normal or expected

His aberrant behavior raised concerns among his friends.

Synonyms:

- deviant
- anomalous
- peculiar

872. Abide

verb:

- tolerate, follow, or accept

I will abide by the rules of the game.

Synonyms:

- uphold
- heed
- adhere to

873. Bravado

noun:

- a display of boldness or confidence, often feigned

She showed bravado when faced with the challenge, but inside she was nervous.

Synonyms:

- swagger
- bluster
- machismo

874. Callow

adjective:

- young and inexperienced; immature

The callow intern made several mistakes on his first day.

Synonyms:

- jejune
- guileless
- artless

875. Capitulate

verb:

- surrender or give up resistance

The army capitulated after a long battle.

Synonyms:

- yield
- succumb
- relent

876. Cogitate

verb:

- think deeply; ponder or reflect

He took a moment to cogitate before answering the question.

Synonyms:

- contemplate
- ruminate on
- mull over

877. Deportment

noun:

- behavior or manners

His deportment at the formal event was impeccable.

Synonyms:

- conduct
- etiquette
- habits

878. Extemporize

verb:

- improvise, especially in speech or performance

The musician had to extemporize when she forgot her sheet music.

Synonyms:

- ad-lib
- wing it
- play it by ear

879. Factious

adjective:

- causing division or disagreement

The factious debate split the committee in two.

Synonyms:

- schismatic
- discordant
- sectarian

880. Fallow

adjective:

- (of farmland) not cultivated; barren

The farmland lay fallow, awaiting next season's crops.

Synonyms:

- untilled
- unsown
- unplowed

adjective:

- (of a period of time) inactive

Those were the fallow periods of my life when I accomplished very little.

Synonyms:

- dormant
- idle
- slack

881. Feint

noun:

- a deceptive movement or action

The boxer used a feint to distract his opponent.

Synonyms:

- pretense
- sham
- ruse

882. Flagrant

adjective:

- noticeably offensive; blatant

His flagrant disregard for the rules earned him a suspension.

Synonyms:

- egregious
- glaring
- overt

883. Gratuitous

adjective:

- unwarranted; without justification

The movie's gratuitous violence upset many viewers.

Synonyms:

- undue
- redundant
- superfluous

884. Grovel

verb:

- show submission or fear; beg for favor

He refused to grovel, even when faced with adversity.

Synonyms:

- kowtow to
- fawn over
- curry favor with

885. Indecorous

adjective:

- not in good taste; inappropriate or unseemly

It was indecorous to make such a joke at a funeral.

Synonyms:

- unbecoming
- indelicate
- wanton

886. Intrigue

noun:

- a secret scheme or plot

The movie revolved around political intrigue and espionage.

Synonyms:

- collusion
- conniving
- conspiracy

verb:

- provoke interest in

Books use salacious titles to intrigue readers.

Synonyms:

- tempt
- tantalize
- lure

887. Nominal

adjective:

- in name only

He was the nominal leader, but others pulled the strings behind the scenes.

Synonyms:

- token
- symbolic
- titular

adjective:

- insubstantial; insignificant

Julie's parents provided her with only a nominal allowance.

Synonyms:

- minute
- token
- trifling

888. Obdurate

adjective:

- stubborn; unyielding

His obdurate refusal to listen was frustrating.

Synonyms:

- obstinate
- intransigent
- intractable

889. Obstreperous

adjective:

- noisy, unruly, or hard to control

The obstreperous child disrupted the entire classroom.

Synonyms:

- boisterous
- disruptive
- rowdy

890. Odious

adjective:

- highly offensive; repugnant

The odious crime shocked the community.

Synonyms:

- detestable
- abhorrent
- revolting

891. Plucky

adjective:

- showing courage or determination

The plucky underdog team won the championship.

Synonyms:

- intrepid
- valiant
- spirited

892. Precocious

adjective:

- showing advanced skills or development earlier than usual

The precocious child was reading novels at age five.

Synonyms:

- gifted
- brilliant
- mature

893. Remuneration

noun:

- payment or compensation for services or work

He received remuneration for his consulting services.

Synonyms:

- stipend
- remittance
- recompense

894. Slovenly

adjective:

- untidy, especially in personal appearance

His slovenly attire was deemed inappropriate for the interview.

Synonyms:

- unkempt
- disheveled
- scruffy

adjective:

- without care; neglectful

Alcohol consumption made his speech slovenly.

Synonyms:

- slapdash
- slipshod

- haphazard

895. Soliloquy

noun:

- a speech in a drama where a character talks to themselves, expressing inner thoughts

Hamlet's "To be or not to be" is a famous soliloquy.

Synonyms:

- monologue
- oration
- sermon

896. Spurn

verb:

- reject or refuse disdainfully

She spurned his advances, making her feelings clear.

Synonyms:

- repudiate
- rebuff
- scorn

897. Stolid

adjective:

- not easily moved or emotional

His stolid demeanor made it hard to read his feelings.

Synonyms:

- phlegmatic
- stoic
- impassive

898. Temerity

noun:

- reckless boldness or audacity

She had the temerity to challenge the established norms.

Synonyms:

- nerve
- effrontery
- cheek

899. Tenuous

adjective:

- thin or weak

The evidence against him was tenuous at best.

Synonyms:

- negligible
- shaky
- dubious

900. Verve

noun:

- energy, enthusiasm, or vigor

She performed the dance with unmatched verve and passion.

Synonyms:

- buoyancy
- elan
- vitality

Group 31

901. Abrogate

verb:

- formally cancel or do away with

The government decided to abrogate the outdated law.

Synonyms:

- axe
- repeal
- repudiate

902. Aghast

adjective:

- shocked or horrified; struck with amazement

She was aghast at the news of the sudden tragedy.

Synonyms:

- appalled
- dismayed
- agog

903. Apprise

verb:

- inform, notify, or advise

The manager apprised him of the changes in the plan.

Synonyms:

- intimate
- illuminate
- enlighten

904. Beguile

verb:

- charm or deceive in a captivating way

The magician's tricks beguiled the audience.

Synonyms:

- seduce
- enchant
- mesmerize

905. Boon

noun:

- a good thing; a blessing or a benefit

The new technology proved a boon to students.

Synonyms:

- perk
- privilege
- benison

906. Callous

adjective:

- emotionally unfeeling or insensitive

His callous remarks upset her deeply.

Synonyms:

- cruel
- hard-bitten
- ruthless

907. Coddle

verb:

- pamper or treat with excessive care

Some believe modern children are coddled too much.

Synonyms:

- indulge
- cosset
- gratify

908. Crescendo

noun:

- the loudest or highest point of something

The music reached a crescendo during the finale.

Synonyms:

- apex
- acme
- pinnacle

909. Extenuating

adjective:

- lessening the seriousness by providing excuses

The judge considered the extenuating circumstances before sentencing.

Synonyms:

- alleviating
- palliative
- diminishing

910. Frenetic

adjective:

- fast-paced or wildly energetic

The office atmosphere was frenetic during the product launch.

Synonyms:

- frantic
- manic
- feverish

911. Fringe

adjective:

- unconventional, extreme, or marginal

Her ideas were considered fringe by many of her peers.

Synonyms:

- radical
- peripheral
- outermost

912. Hapless

adjective:

- unlucky or unfortunate

The hapless traveler lost his luggage twice.

Synonyms:

- doomed
- jinxed
- forlorn

913. Immaculate

adjective:

- spotlessly clean or free from errors

She wore an immaculate white dress.

Synonyms:

- unsoiled
- pristine
- gleaming

914. Obfuscate

verb:

- obscure or confuse

Legal jargon can often obfuscate a document's true meaning.

Synonyms:

- blur
- muddy
- garble

915. Ossify

verb:

- harden or become unchanging

Over time, his beliefs began to ossify.

Synonyms:

- rigidify
- petrify
- solidify

916. Pastiche

noun:

- a work that either imitates the style of multiple other works or combines elements from various works

The film was a pastiche of several genres.

Synonyms:

- parody
- melange
- patchwork

917. Perspicacious

adjective:

- keenly perceptive or understanding

Her perspicacious insights solved the complex puzzle.

Synonyms:

- shrewd
- observant
- discerning

918. Ponderous

adjective:

- heavy or slow-moving, often due to weight; extremely dull

His speech had a ponderous tone, making it hard to follow.

Synonyms:

- clumsy
- labored
- lumbering

919. Recluse

noun:

- a person who lives in self-imposed isolation

After years in the spotlight, the star became a recluse.

Synonyms:

- eremite
- hermit
- ascetic

920. Retaliate

verb:

- take revenge or counteract

After the attack, there were fears the nation would retaliate.

Synonyms:

- redress
- avenge
- retort

921. Rhapsody

noun:

- an ecstatic expression of feeling or enthusiasm

She went into a rhapsody about her favorite book.

Synonyms:

- ecstasy
- elation
- euphoria

922. Serendipitous

adjective:

- occurring by chance in a fortunate way

The unexpected meeting was a serendipitous event.

Synonyms:

- fluky
- fortuitous
- providential

923. Shirk

verb:

- avoid or neglect a responsibility or duty

He was criticized for trying to shirk his responsibilities.

Synonyms:

- evade
- dodge
- shun

924. Sinecure

noun:

- a job requiring minimal effort but offering a salary

After years of hard work, she longed for a sinecure.

Synonyms:

- cushy job
- plum job
- free ride

925. Sinuous

adjective:

- winding or having many smooth turns

The sinuous path followed the course of the river.

Synonyms:

- flexuous
- tortuous
- serpentine

926. Sordid

adjective:

- involving ignoble actions and motives

The detective uncovered the sordid details of the case.

Synonyms:

- seedy
- louche
- sleazy

adjective:

- dirty or squalid

The room's sordid conditions reflected years of neglect and decay.

Synonyms:

- grimy
- muddy
- shabby

927. Stanch

verb:

- stop or reduce the flow of

The doctor worked to stanch the bleeding.

Synonyms:

- curb
- halt
- suppress

928. Surfeit

noun:

- an excessive amount of something

There was a surfeit of food at the banquet.

Synonyms:

- surplus
- glut
- plethora

929. Ulterior

adjective:

- concealed, typically with a hidden motive

She had ulterior motives for attending the event.

Synonyms:

- covert
- underlying
- undivulged

930. Voluble

adjective:

- speaking a lot, with great ease, often about unimportant matters

The voluble salesman pitched his product for hours.

Synonyms:

- verbose
- articulate
- loquacious

Group 32

931. Abstruse

adjective:

- difficult to comprehend or understand

Quantum physics is an abstruse topic for many.

Synonyms:

- obscure
- arcane
- esoteric

932. Auxiliary

adjective:

- supplementary or additional, often in support

The ship has an auxiliary engine in case the main one fails.

Synonyms:

- subsidiary
- ancillary
- fallback

933. Caricature

verb:

- exaggerate features for comedic or satirical effect

The cartoonist caricatured the mayor with an exaggerated, oversized head.

Synonyms:

- parody
- satirize
- lampoon

934. Depravity

noun:

- the state or condition of being depraved or morally corrupted

Tales of the villain's depravity were spread across the land.

Synonyms:

- perversion
- turpitude
- debauchery

935. Dilettante

noun:

- a person with an amateur interest in the arts or a particular field

Though a passionate painter, he was dismissed as a dilettante by professionals.

Synonyms:

- layperson
- dabbler
- layman

936. Effrontery

noun:

- insolent or bold behavior

He had the effrontery to deny the clear evidence against him.

Synonyms:

- impudence
- audacity
- temerity

937. Encroach

verb:

- intrude or trespass, especially on another's territory or rights

Developers began to encroach upon the forested area.

Synonyms:

- invade
- infringe
- impinge

938. Endow

verb:

- enrich or furnish with some faculty or quality

Nature has endowed him with great athletic talent.

Synonyms:

- endue
- bestow
- confer

939. Entreat

verb:

- ask earnestly or anxiously; beg

She entreated him to stay for one more day.

Synonyms:

- plead
- implore
- beseech

940. Gregarious

verb:

- sociable and enjoying the company of others

Dolphins are known to be gregarious creatures.

Synonyms:

convivial affable amiable

941. Indictment

noun:

an official formal accusation for a criminal offence

The grand jury returned an indictment against the accused.

Synonyms:

plaint imputation impeachment

942. Indignant

adjective:

feeling or expressing strong displeasure at something unjust or offensive

She was indignant at the way she was treated.

Synonyms:

resentful vexed aggrieved

943. Ineluctable

adjective:

inescapable or inevitable

Aging is an ineluctable process of life.

Synonyms:

irrevocable predestined

immutable

944. Inquisitive

adjective:

curious or eager to acquire knowledge

Her inquisitive nature led her to explore various topics.

Synonyms:

nosy prying

intrigued

945. Latitude

noun:

scope to do something; relative freedom from restrictions

The manager gave him considerable latitude in making decisions.

Synonyms:

slack

leeway

license

946. Levity

noun:

humor or lightness, especially when inappropriate

The levity in his speech was surprising given the serious occasion.

Synonyms:

vivacity

gaiety

hilarity

947. Malevolent

adjective:

showing ill will or wishing harm to others

The villain had a malevolent glare.

Synonyms:

vicious hostile

malignant

948. Mediate

verb:

intervene between parties to bring about a resolution

The counselor helped mediate the dispute between the siblings.

Synonyms:

arbitrate

conciliate

intercede

949. Occlude

verb:

block or stop up; cover

A blood clot can occlude an artery, causing serious health issues.

Synonyms:

obstruct choke

clog

950. Pacify

verb:

bring peace to or calm someone down

The lullaby worked to pacify the crying baby.

Synonyms:

placate

appease

conciliate

951. Paragon

noun:

a model of excellence or perfection

She was seen as a paragon of virtue in the community.

Synonyms:

exemplar

epitome

acme

952. Patronize

verb:

treat with an apparent kindness that is condescending

No one liked to be patronized by the arrogant manager.

Synonyms:

disdain belittle spurn

verb:

be a regular customer of a store or other establishment

Many locals patronize the small bakery because of its delicious homemade bread.

Synonyms:

back endorse champion

953. Penurious

adjective:

extremely poor or stingy

His penurious habits often led him to avoid spending money, even on essentials.

Synonyms:

indigent destitute impecunious

954. Piquant

adjective:

stimulating to the senses; engaging;
charming

The mystery novel had a piquant plot twist that kept readers engaged until the very end.

Synonyms:

intriguing spirited sparkling

955. Rampant

adjective:

unrestrained or unchecked, usually in a negative manner

Corruption was rampant in the city.

Synonyms:

rife pervasive unbridled

956. Remote

adjective:

not likely to happen

There's a remote possibility that we might move to another city

Synonyms:

far-fetched implausible improbable

957. Reprobate

noun:

immoral, having no religious or principled character

Despite his reprobate behavior, he charmed everyone with his eloquence.

Synonyms:

rakish degenerate depraved

958. Turbid

adjective:

(of water) muddy or opaque due to suspended particles

The river's rapid flow left the water extremely turbid and muddy.

Synonyms:

murky riled roily

adjective:

unclear; confused; obscure

The professor's lecture was turbid, leaving students bewildered about the main points.

Synonyms:

arcane

vague

ambiguous

959. Turgid

adjective:

swollen or bloated

His leg was turgid with fluid, painfully stretched and discolored.

Synonyms:

inflated

engorged bulging

adjective:

overly complex and difficult to understand

His speech was turgid with unnecessary technical terms.

Synonyms:

- bombastic
- pompous
- pretentious

960. Vacuous

adjective:

- lacking intelligence or thought

The actor gave a vacuous smile during the interview.

Synonyms:

- vacant
- inane
- inscrutable

Coalesced By Mehedi Hasan Antor